CALL FOR PAPERS & PROPOSALS

Global Perspectives in Leadership Research Roundtable

The Global Perspectives in Leadership Research Roundtable is new to our event this year and provides a forum for scholars, researchers and practitioners to share their work and insights on the ever increasing field of global leadership. Whether globalization and cross-cultural Christian engagement is considered good or bad, evidence pointing to the inevitability of such engagements is all around us. Clearly, the time has come to shift our discussions and questions from “if we should engage cross-culturally” to “how we should engage cross-culturally.” Global leadership is complex, as are the issues that need to be addressed from a global, multicultural, as well as Biblical perspective. The roundtable’s aim is to provide an opportunity to engage deeply and from a global perspective with important issues, including, but certainly not limited to topics such as: leadership ethics, morality, workforce development, gender perspectives, leadership development, worldview and leadership. The possibilities are nothing but inspirational in our current era of global connectedness. The Global Perspectives in Leadership Research Roundtable welcomes the following:

Papers: All papers will be considered for publication in the Regent University International Journal of Leadership Studies: www.regent.edu/ijls. As such, please make sure that:
