Regent University and Norfolk State University Announce

Region II and Region III Grant Courses
To Satisfy the Highly Qualified Requirement for 6-12 Special Educators

The VDOE grant will pay $175 (half of tuition) for each course for teachers who qualify*

Meeting online from 10/28-12/1 & at Regent on 10/28 and 11/11, 9 am-5 pm
• 6-12 English/Language Arts
• 6-12 Algebra
• 6-12 Earth/Space Science

Meeting online from 10/28-12/1 & at Regent on 11/4 and 11/18, 9 am – 5 pm
• 6-12 Social Studies
• 6-12 Geometry
• 6-12 Life Science

Limited seating is available. To register for any of these classes, contact Becky McCown, Coordinator of Professional Development at rmccown@regent.edu or 757.226.4096.

All classes will meet on Regent University’s main campus, located at 1000 Regent University Dr., Virginia Beach, VA 23464-9800.

While these classes do not certify teachers in these subject areas, they do help 6-12 Special Education teachers become Highly Qualified in those subject areas.

*To qualify, teachers must have a VA license in Special Education and be currently teaching Special Education in a Region II or III school.