Statement of Faith

In an effort to help you understand more about Regent University community life, please review the articles on this page and sign below.

Philosophy of Education

Regent University is a Christ-centered institution. The board of trustees as well as the faculty and staff of the university are committed to an evangelical interpretation and application of the Christian faith. The campus community is closely identified with the present day renewal movement, which emphasizes the gifts, fruits and ministries of the Holy Spirit. It is expected that our students will both understand and be committed to receiving an education in accordance with the following articles:

- A. That the Holy Bible is the inspired, infallible and authoritative source of Christian doctrine and precept.
- B. That there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- C. That man was created in the image of God but as a result of sin is lost and powerless to save himself.
- D. That the only hope for man is to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, the virgin-born Son of God, Who died to take upon Himself the punishment for the sin of mankind and Who rose from the dead so that by receiving Him as Savior and Lord, man is redeemed by His blood.
- E. That Jesus Christ will personally return to earth in power and glory.
- F. That the Holy Spirit indwells those who receive Christ, for the purpose of enabling them to live righteous and holy lives.
- G. That the Church is the Body of Christ and is comprised of all those who, through belief in Christ, have been spiritually regenerated by the indwelling Holy Spirit. The mission of the Church is worldwide evangelization and the nurturing and discipling of Christians.

Nondiscriminatory Policy

Regent University's policies governing the admission of students relate to its Philosophy of Education statement and mission, but are not applied to preclude a diverse student body in terms of disability, race, color, religion, national origin or gender.

Standard of Personal Conduct

Regent University encourages a close and edifying relationship between faculty and students, one that will deepen the spiritual growth of each and stimulate a vigorous intellectual life in the Regent community. In order to accomplish these aims, it is imperative that Regent University faculty, staff and students conduct themselves in a Christlike and professional manner and maintain an exemplary and involved lifestyle. Regular church and chapel attendance, and participation in the activities of the Regent community and its founding organization, are encouraged for students and expected for faculty and staff. Regent University requires members of the Regent community—faculty, staff and students—to refrain from the illegal use of drugs and the abuse of addictive substances controlled by law.

Regent also forbids the use of alcohol, illicit drugs and tobacco on campus and prohibits the abuse of these substances by the Regent community. The Apostle Paul exhorted the body of Christ that, if they truly loved their fellow man, they would set aside their personal freedom by refraining from behavior that might be a stumbling block to their weaker brother. Regent University encourages members of the Regent community to exercise their personal responsibility and, guided by Paul's admonition, appropriately set aside their personal freedom and refrain from the use of alcohol, illicit drugs and tobacco.

I certify that I have read the Regent University Community Life Form and I understand that I will receive an education in accordance with the Philosophy of Education. I further certify that I will submit myself to the Standard of Personal Conduct throughout the time of my enrollment as a student.
