Congratulations on your acceptance to the LL.M. in American Legal Studies Program. Please complete and return this enrollment agreement with your international student seat deposit within two weeks of the date of your letter of acceptance or by April 1 (Fall matriculants), whichever occurs later. To reserve your seat in the entering class, you must submit the seat deposit using one of the payment options below. Please complete and return this form even if you have decided not to enroll in the program.

Please check all that apply:

☐ I understand that I must provide original transcripts from all post-secondary undergraduate and graduate institutions attended to Regent University School of Law and that my enrollment is contingent upon Regent’s receipt of all required transcripts. This requirement is in addition to the transcripts previously provided to Law Services or a credential evaluation agency.

☐ I will enroll in the LL.M. in American Legal Studies program and will attend orientation the week of August 13, as well as any orientation required by the Regent University Office of International Student Services.

☐ I have enclosed the international student seat deposit made payable to Regent University School of Law.

☐ I have paid the international student seat deposit by credit card via the web: https://www.regent.edu/payments/.

☐ I will not be enrolling for the following reason(s): ________________________________________________________________

Name (please print): ____________________________________________ E-Mail Address: ________________________________

Phone: ____________________________

Signature: ____________________________ Date: ____________________________

The following section must be completed by admitted students who plan to enroll at Regent:

Transcript Compliance: Admitted students must provide original transcripts to Regent University School of Law from each post-secondary institution attended. Enrollment is contingent upon Regent’s receipt of all required transcripts as determined by Regent Law School. This requirement is in addition to transcripts that may have been previously provided to Law Services. International students need not replicate transcripts previously provided to Regent Law School by their credential evaluation agency. International students must submit all foreign transcripts to the credential evaluation agency, not just the degree-granting institution.

Transcript Request Certification: Official transcripts from each post-secondary institution attended were requested as follows:
