

2010-2011 REGENT LAW THE NAVIGATORS SCHOLARSHIP

AFFIRMATION OF CHRISTIAN MISSIONS AND SCHOLARSHIP PURPOSE

The mission of Regent University is “Christian Leadership to Change the World”. The purpose of The Navigators is “to advance the Gospel of Jesus and His Kingdom into the nations through successive generations of laborers living and discipling among the lost”. Therefore, Regent University School of Law, in partnership with The Navigators, has established a scholarship for qualified applicants affiliated with The Navigators and called to the high responsibility of Christian lawyering.

THE NAVIGATORS SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

Only students who are admitted to Regent Law and have submitted all required documentation will be considered for the scholarship (see checklist below). All materials submitted for admission including the personal statement, resume and faculty recommendations, will also be considered during the scholarship decision.

The Navigators 2010-2011 Scholarship is based on the following LSAT/UGPA criteria; however, final award decisions are subject to the discretion of the law school:

- 161+ LSAT & 3.2 UGPA = $24,000 to full-tuition scholarship
- 158–160 LSAT & 3.2 UGPA = $16,000 to $24,000 Scholarship
- 155–157 LSAT & 3.2 UGPA = $8,000 to $16,000 scholarship
- 152–154 LSAT & 3.2 UGPA = up to a $8,000 scholarship

THE NAVIGATORS SCHOLARSHIP TERMS

Award levels for this scholarship significantly exceed those generally awarded for individuals in similar score ranges; therefore, recipients typically are not awarded supplementary law school scholarships or grants. The Regent Law Navigators scholarship renews annually at the previous amount provided the student maintains a spring cumulative grade point average of 3.0. All scholarships and grants are subject to the School of Law Financial Aid Policies & Procedures. Regent University School of Law reserves the right to modify or terminate the scholarship program at anytime. Additional law school financial aid information may be found at www.regent.edu/lawfinances.
