The Office of Career & Alumni Services
We invite you to enlist our services the next time your office or organization looks to fill a vacancy or secure an intern.

We assist employers who want to identify law clerks, select summer associates, and fill full-time attorney positions through the following programs:

On-Campus Interviewing: Interview candidates at our campus in Virginia Beach. We can coordinate the interview schedule and tailor the interview program to fit your needs.

Résumé Collection Service: We solicit qualified applicants, screen and collect résumés, and forward to you those applications that meet your preferred criteria.

Video Conferencing: State-of-the-art video conferencing is available if you are unable to interview on campus.

Free Job Postings: You may forward volunteer or paid positions to us or post them on your own using Pathfinder, our Symplicity-based job search engine. Job postings are always available and readily accessible by our alumni and law students. Go to regent.edu/pathfinder to post positions, or email them to lawcareerservices@regent.edu.
