

Regent Undergraduate Council
Application for the Position of Special Assistant

What is the Regent Undergraduate Council?

The Regent Undergraduate Council (RUC) exists to glorify Jesus, serving as student representatives who seek to enhance the spiritual, academic, and social lives of Regent School of Undergraduate Studies and a unified Regent community. The Council is a body of undergraduate students made up of an executive board, one senator from each major, and many special assistants.

Who are Special Assistants?

Special assistants are appointed, non-voting members of the Council who contribute their talents to help plan activities and events. Special assistants help to encourage students spiritually, academically, and socially. Special assistants are crucial to the Council's effectiveness and success. Regular meeting attendance is encouraged, but not required.
