Free Credit Repair Workshop

*Friday, September 18, 2009 10:00 am and 12:00 pm
Regent Ordinary-Fountain View Room*

Central Financial Aid would like to invite you to a Free Credit Repair Workshop which will be held on Friday, September 18, 2009 in the Fountain View Room located in the Student Center. This workshop will help you understand how to effectively repair credit problems. In this interactive session we will review the subjects which lead into the topic of credit repair and questions such as: Is there a quick and easy way to repair personal credit? What are common myths of credit repair? What are key steps to effectively repair one's credit? This session will provide helpful tips for traversing the course to repaired credit. You may find the session useful as many of the issues can be resolved with diligence and hard work on your part.

Goodbyes and Hellos from CFA

Goodbyes are always hard to say. In August, the Central Financial Aid Office said goodbye to Karen Tucker, a Financial Aid Counselor, as she and her husband moved to Ohio to pursue new career opportunities. Karen had been with the Central Financial Aid Office since 2005 and brought with her a passion to help students as they pursued their academic goals. I'm sure her students and anyone who came in contact with her would join with the CFA Office in wishing her the best in her new pursuits.

With the departure of Karen Tucker, the Central Financial Aid Office has added a new counselor to fill her place. Please join the CFA staff in welcoming Shannon O'Leary to Regent University. She comes to us from the Culinary Institute of America where she served as their Financial Aid Director. She will begin full counselor responsibilities by the end of September. She will be responsible for students with last names beginning in L-R.

New Scholarship Opportunity from Foreclosure.com

Foreclosure.com, one of the leading agencies providing residential foreclosure property listings, is enlisting your help to solve the housing crisis that has plagued the US over the past year. They want your ideas so bad that they're willing to pay you for it. Foreclosure.com is offering one $5,000 scholarship and 4 $1,000 scholarships for those that can provide them with innovative ideas and solutions to "solve the foreclosure crisis" in the form of an essay. Here is some additional information regarding the scholarship:

Deadline: 12/31/2009

Requirements: Original, previously unpublished work; minimum 1,000 words, maximum 2,500 words

Eligibility: accepted/incoming freshmen, enrolled under-graduate students, and graduate students. All majors encouraged to apply. U.S. citizenship required.
