- Thursday, November 15, 3:00 p.m.

LOCATION: Room 112, Student Center Building

All F-1 students who plan to do a mandatory academic internship during the Spring '08 semester are required to attend one of these three CPT Sessions this fall before the OISS can process their CPT application. CPT is explained, the application process is discussed, and the CPT applications are distributed at this session. Sessions will start on time, so please do not be late. Attendance will be taken.

► Overview of Employment Rules & Options for F-1 Students

- Friday, November 2, 3:00 p.m.

LOCATION: Room 112, Student Center Building

Employment is considered to be the rendering of services for compensation—financial or other. Working in the U.S. without proper authorization, and/or for more hours than permitted, are serious violations of the F-1 status which can lead to severe consequences, such as deportation. All F-1 international students who are considering employment in the U.S. are encouraged to attend this session, which will cover the five types of employment options available to them as well as the rules and regulations for working in the U.S. If you are interested in working in the U.S. we look forward to seeing you at this session! Special Note: Self-employment is not permitted for F-1 students, and F-2 dependents are not permitted to work in the U.S. under any circumstances.
