

Regent University Campus Map

1. Regent University Classroom Building

This 50,000-square-foot building, built in 1986, houses the School of Psychology & Counseling, the Psychological Services Center, and PC teaching labs in addition to numerous classrooms and seminar rooms.

2. Regent University Administration Building

Built in 1979, the Administration Building is the original building on campus. The building houses the offices of the President, Academic Affairs, Chief Financial Officer, Administrative Services, Facilities & Engineering, Human Resources, Advancement, Marketing, Public Relations, Alumni Relations, University Relations, and the Business Office. It also houses the School of Education and several classrooms.

3. Regent University Library Building

Dedicated in October 1984, the University Library allows students to access libraries and databases nationwide via innovative computer technology in the electronic reference center. The third floor of the library building houses the Law Library, the largest, most complete law library in Hampton Roads, with an extensive collection of federal and state materials. Established in 1986, the Law Library contains significant materials for research in public policy and law, constitutional law, legal history, religion and law, international law, and international human rights, among others. The library building also houses Mail Services, Copy Services and Central Enrollment.

4. Robertson Hall

Dedicated in the fall of 1994, this four-story building is equipped with the latest audio/video technology and cameras for simultaneous broadcasting. The classrooms are tiered and seminar-sized. The 132,000-square-foot building houses the School of Law, the Robertson School of Government, the School of Divinity and the School of Undergraduate Studies, plus a 376-seat moot court/city council chamber, various student organizations and the offices of the American Center for Law and Justice (ACLJ).

5. Regent Commons

This 172,000-square-foot, two-building student housing complex opened in 2007. The Commons is comprised of several types of furnished housing units. Rental fees for these units include furniture, electricity, cable television, Internet service, water/sewage and use of the fitness center.

6. Communication & Performing Arts Center

Opened in the fall of 2002, the 135,000-square-foot building houses all the functional areas of the School of Communication & the Arts, along with the Center for Teaching & Learning, Information Technology and Media Services. Key elements in the building are a 710-seat proscenium arch theatre, a 195-seat experimental theatre, a TV studio, a film sound stage, non-linear video editing suites, costume and scene shops, acting and dance labs, two film screening theatres, a complete film production suite, a computer graphics animation studio, a converged media journalism newsroom and a film back lot.

7. Student Center

Opened in late fall 2002, the two-story Student Center houses the offices of Student Services, Central Financial Aid and Registrar. Regent University Bookstore, School of Undergraduate Studies Admissions, COGS offices, student organization offices, a student lounge and a dining facility are also here.

8. CBN Studio Headquarters Building

One of the most expansive broadcast facilities in the nation, Studio Headquarters houses CBN's worldwide television outreach and network administrative offices. On October 6, 1979, Christian leaders nationwide gathered to dedicate the building for the purpose of taking the gospel to the entire world.

9. CBN Corporate Support Building

The 290,000-square-foot building houses vital support personnel who help meet the demands of CBN's rapidly expanding international ministry, along with Operation Blessing, the Prayer Counseling Center, the Campus Police and a fully operational print shop that services CBN.

10. The Founders Inn and Spa

The luxurious, Georgian-style resort provides vacation and business travelers with an unparalleled level of lodging hospitality. The four building complex provides 240 guest rooms and suites, spa facilities, swimming pools, formal gardens, meeting rooms and two restaurants. The ballroom, which seats 1,400, has advanced technological capabilities including high-speed Internet access and teleconferencing. (Special rates are offered to Regent University guests.)

11. Metroplex (Adjacent to Amerigroup)

This 35,000-square-foot modern office building is owned and managed by GVA Advantis and is located on Regent University Drive—less than half a mile from the main campus. Built in 2008, the building houses the School of Global Leadership & Entrepreneurship. The Metroplex also houses offices for the American Center for Law and Justice on the first floor, and a studio and offices for the Trinity Broadcasting Network on the second floor.

Regent Village

Regent Village is the university's housing area primarily for married couples and families. It is comprised of 224 two- and three-bedroom apartments. Laundry facilities, a grilling area, playground, and basketball and volleyball courts are on the premises. Activities for students and their family members are planned by members of both the residential community and Student Housing staff.

REGENT UNIVERSITY — Christian Leadership to Change the World

Regent University is dedicated to preparing men and women to make a positive impact on society through Christian integrity and professionalism. Thousands of students enroll annually. More than 30 graduate degrees are offered in the areas of business, communication and the arts, divinity, education, government, law, leadership, and psychology and counseling. In addition, the School of Undergraduate Studies offers multiple associate's and bachelor's degrees, and bachelor-degree completion. In addition to attending the campus in Virginia Beach, students can pursue their degrees online from nearly anywhere in the world. The School of Education also offers select cohorts in Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) and Prince William County Schools (PWCS) in the D.C. area.

Directions to Regent University

To visit the university, take exit 286-B from Interstate 64 at Indian River Road. The campus is on the right. Regent is just a 15-minute drive from the Norfolk International Airport.

Campus Tours | www.regent.edu/visit

The scenic, 700-acre campus in Virginia Beach, VA., is a fascinating study of stately Georgian architecture. Guided campus tours are scheduled weekdays between 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. for prospective undergraduate students (call 757.352.4960) and at 11:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. for prospective graduate students and the general public (call 757.352.4036).

Campus Attractions | www.regent.edu/theatre; www.regent.edu/preview; www.foundersinn.com; www.cbn.com.

Visitors may choose to explore other campus events. Campus life offers a rich and varied experience including Wednesday noon chapels, theatre performances, seminars, concerts, Preview Weekends, Founders Inn services and tours of CBN.

Local Attractions | www.hamptonroads.com; www.vbgov.com; www.virginia.org.

While in Hampton Roads, be sure to enjoy the 28 miles of beautiful ocean and bay beaches. Local cultural and nature attractions include First Landing State Park, the Virginia Aquarium & Marine Science Center, the Chrysler Museum, the MacArthur Memorial, the National Maritime Museum and Nauticus. For a fascinating taste of the 18th century, visit the historic towns of Williamsburg, Jamestown and Yorktown, or explore the Virginia state capital of Richmond—all within a two-hour drive of the university. In addition, the nation's capital is only 200 miles from Virginia Beach.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: WWW.REGENT.EDU

1000 Regent University Drive, Virginia Beach, VA 23464-9800

Regent University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award associates, baccalaureate, masters, and doctorate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404.679.4500 for questions about the accreditation of Regent University. Regent University is certified by the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia to operate campuses within the Commonwealth of Virginia. Regent University School of Law is fully accredited by the American Bar Association. The School of Divinity is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools. The School of Psychology & Counseling's M.A. in Counseling (School and Community) is accredited by CACREP; the Doctor of Psychology (Psy.D.) is accredited by the American Psychological Association Committee on accreditation. MKT096426