The word discipleship and the word discipline are the same word— that has always fascinated me.

Once you have made the choice to say, "Yes, I want to follow Jesus," the question is, "What disciplines will help me remain faithful to that choice?"

If we want to be disciples of Jesus, we have to live a disciplined life.

- Henri Nouwen
Spiritual Con/Formation

The quest for Spiritual Formation falls in the academic field of spirituality.

The Oxford Dictionary defines “spirituality” as the quality or condition of being spiritual.

In turn it defines “spiritual” as devout, holy, pious, morally good.
Christian Spirituality is about a process of formation. We are formed by, and in, Christ. It is a form of Christ-[ening] – being clothed with Christ, and so being transformed.”

Spiritual Con/Formation

Christian Spirituality is "one’s unique and personal response to the call of Christ through the Spirit in the world of inner and outer realities."

- Roy Fairchild, San Francisco Theological Seminary
Spiritual Direction

“We define Christian spiritual direction as help given by one Christian to another which enables that person to pay attention to God’s personal communication to him or her, to respond to this personally communicating God, to grow in intimacy with this God, and to live out the consequences of the relationship.”

- W. A. Barry and W. J. Connelly (1982)
Spiritual Con/Formation and Direction

“And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose. For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that they might be the firstborn among many brethren.”

(Romans 8:28-29 - NKJV)
Spiritual (Con)Formation

The Quest for con-[trans]-formation is the quest to find our truest identity in Christ.

“Who are you Lord, and who am I?”

– Francis of Assisi
Dynamics of Spiritual Formation

“And we all,

with unveiled faces,

beholding the glory of the Lord

as within a mirror

are being transformed into the same image

from glory to glory,

just as by the Spirit of the Lord.”

(2 Corinthians 3:18)
Dynamics of Spiritual Formation

“And we all, (communal presence) with unveiled faces, (intra/inter personal presence) beholding the glory of the Lord (devotional presence) as within a mirror are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.”

(2 Corinthians 3:18)

Communal Presence

Devotional Presence

Intra/inter Personal Presence
Communal Presence

Within the discipline of community are the disciplines of forgiveness and celebration. Forgiveness and celebration are what make community, whether a marriage, a friendship, or any other form of community.

- Henri Nouwen
Intra/Inter Personal Presence

We make ourselves real by telling the truth.

-Thomas Merton
Devotional Presence

“Place your mind in the mirror of eternity; Place your soul in the splendor of glory; Place your heart in the figure of the divine substance; And, through contemplation, transform your entire being into the image of the Divine One Himself.”

- Clare of Assisi
Goal of Transformation

“And we all, (Communal Presence)
with unveiled faces, (Intra/intra Personal Presence) beholding the glory of the Lord (Devotional Presence)
as within a mirror
are being transformed (process)
into the same image (icon)
from glory to glory, (process)
just as by the Spirit of the Lord.” (Divine Presence)

(2 Corinthians 3:18)
Goal of Transformation
Spiritual Direction & the Discipline of Presence

“Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.”

- James 5:16
There is healing in being known in my vulnerability and impatience and weakness. Suddenly I realize that Henri is a good person also in the eyes of people who don't read books and who don't care about success. These people can forgive me constantly for the little egocentric gestures and behaviors that are always there.
