

Agape on Campus (permanent charter pending)

- Bringing students together to support one another
- Encourage and show unconditional love to fellow students experiencing difficulties
- All Regent students are welcome
- For more information contact: elizhin@regent.edu

Association of Latino American Students (permanent charter pending)

- Enhance the academic achievement and personal growth of Latino students
- Deepening the understanding of Latino culture and current issues concerning Latinos
- To unify, support and advocate for Latino students, contributing to their success through spiritual, social, cultural, recreational, and academic programs
- Membership is open to all current Regent University students who are Latino or who are interested in Hispanic culture.
- For more information contact: marcmat@regent.edu

Alpha Phi Omega (Service Fraternity)

- To assemble college students in a National Service Fraternity in the fellowship of principles derived from the Scout Oath and Law of the Boy Scouts of America; to develop Leadership, to promote Friendship, and to provide Service to humanity; and to further the freedom that is our national, educational, and intellectual heritage.
- Cardinal Principles are Leadership, Friendship, Service
- Prepare campus and community leaders through service
- Provides service to the campus, to the community, to the nation as participating citizens, and to the membership through leadership development.
- For more information, visit www.apo.org or contact apo@regent.edu

Alternative Dispute Resolution and Client Counseling Board

- Developing skills necessary to resolve disputes before trial
- Conducts mock negotiations and client counseling sessions
- Hosts an intramural negotiation competition each year
- Hosts the Regional ABA Negotiation Competition every 2-3 years
- Sends teams to compete in various ABA competitions

Alexander Hamilton-Thomas Jefferson Society (permanent charter pending)

- Encouraging creative and scholarly research and writing
- Improve public speaking skills through lively and relevant debate
- Fostering community between undergraduate and graduate students
- Challenge through discussion of diverse viewpoints
- Study of fine literature

American Bar Association, Law Student Division

- A non-partisan group seeking to prepare law students for the professional environment
- Provides opportunities for networking with ABA members and advocates students needs
- For more information, go to <http://www.abanet.org/lzd/>

Black Law Students Association

- Assist membership in developing professional and academic competence through appropriate forums and discussion settings.
- Help foster in the membership an awareness of and commitment to the needs of the black community, both legal and otherwise, through community service projects.

- Provide opportunities for membership to enhance spiritual growth and development through devotionals and other activities, with special emphasis on our role as minority Christian attorneys
- Increase membership interaction with the Hampton Roads and Regent University communities through jointly sponsored activities.
- Raise funds to support the activities of the association and to subsidize membership participation in designated activities.
- For more information contact: regent.blsa@regent.edu.

Burn Regent

- Encourage and inspire students to pursue the heart of God
- Seeking revival and intercession for the nations
- Intimate worship sessions
- Encourage students in their relationship with the Lord and with other Believers

Business Transactions Law Society

- Integrate the Christian faith with corporate, commercial, and transactional law
- Provides law students with learning opportunities available through activities involving students, faculty, and members of the local bar
- Allows Regent law students the valuable opportunity to interact with and gain exposure to top Commercial, Corporate, and Transactional attorneys.
- For more information contact: btls@regent.edu, or visit the web site.

Christian Educators Association International

Christian Legal Society

- To inspire, encourage and equip Christian lawyers and law students, both individually and in community, to proclaim, love, and serve Jesus Christ through the study and practice of law, the provision of legal assistance to the poor and needy, and the defense of religious freedom and the sanctity of human life
- Opportunity to attend the annual Christian legal Society conference
- For more information visit <http://www.clsnet.org>

College Republicans and Regent University

- Give members the opportunity to participate in the political process.
- Keep students informed about the candidates and the issues.
- Discuss ethical issues which arise in the political arena.
- For more information contact the Regent Republicans: regentRepublicans@regent.edu.

Concerned Women for America

- A university-wide organization open to all women and like-minded men
- To support each other through spiritual fellowship while working to promote biblical values in America
- CWA is the nation's largest public policy organization with a 29-year history of bringing biblical values back to American policy
- The national website is <http://www.cwfa.org/main.asp>

Council of Graduate Students

- To foster and encourage a quality academic and professional environment.
- To facilitate the interchange of ideas and programs between the respective schools.

- To promote the university's commitment to biblical principles and spiritual development, and in everything to bring glory to God and His Son, Jesus Christ, through the Holy Spirit.
- To advocate and represent the collective ideas, interests, and concerns of the student body to the administration and vice versa.
- For more information, contact Charles Slemp: cogs@regent.edu, or visit the web site.

English Club

- Friendship and fellowship
- Giving English majors and those interested in the English major, a forum to share ideas and writings

Federalist Society

- To preserve freedoms stated in our constitution.
- To promote an awareness that the separation of governmental powers is central to our Constitution.
- To stand for the principle that it is emphatically the province and duty of the judiciary to say what the law is, not what it should be.
- For more information email: federalistsociety@regent.edu, or go to <http://www.fed-soc.org/>

Intellectual Property and Entertainment Law Society

- Provides a forum for Regent students and the legal community to meet and discuss the subjects of Intellectual Property, Entertainment, and Sports law
- Educate students about legal issues and potential employment in those areas and to encourage Christian involvement and participation in these fields

International Justice Mission, Regent Chapter

- Raise awareness of social justice issues and human rights violations
- Encourage and support nations through prayer and educational events
- Help equip and mobilize Christian students to get involved

International Law Society

- To assist and support law students and other members' to succeed in the international affairs community while living and serving in a Christ like manner.
- For more information contact: international.law@regent.edu.

International Student Organization

- To establish, build and strengthen a network of international students that support the vision and mission of the university.
- For more information contact: iso@regent.edu.

Jabez Praise Dance Group

- To have a praise dance team to perform during chapels services, and special events.
- For more information contact Jennifer Jones: jenniferjones622@yahoo.com.

Law Wives Association

- To provide a forum to encourage Christian women in their unique role as wives in accordance with scripture, ministering to them through such venues as speakers, Bible study, prayer, fellowship, and service.
- For more information contact: lawwives@regent.edu.

Legal Advocates for Decency in Everyday Society (LADIES)

- Encouraging, guiding, and supporting women in the legal community while seeking to fulfill the multi-faceted role of womanhood as described in the Bible
- Develop relationships with local and national organizations and alumni to provide resources for students
- Prepare women to overcome workplace challenges
- Maintain a standard of decency in the legal profession through professional dress and conduct
- Dual focus of professionalism and service, merging both to create a balanced life

Moot Court Board

- Train law students to compete in interscholastic moot court competitions
- Host and organize moot court competitions to be held on campus, namely the Regent cup, Undergraduate Moot Court tournament, and National Constitutional Moot Court tournament
- For more information contact mootcourt@regent.edu

Newman Club

- An organization dedicated to foster Catholic-Christian fellowship between Regent students
- Open to all students, faculty, and staff interested in learning more about the Catholic faith
- Weekly mass every Tuesday at 12:15 in the Library Chapel
- For more information visit the web site.

Phi Alpha Delta International

- Develop law students by nurturing one another as brothers and sisters in Christ and encourage and promote each person's personal, professional, and spiritual development
- Provide an effective cohesive forum on a smaller scale than the law school as a whole
- Promote the principles of liberty and equal justice under law for all citizens
- Develop lasting professional friendships
- Further Regent University's mission of Christian Leadership to Change the World

Phi Alpha Delta International, Pre-law Chapter

- Assisting undergraduate students to make an informed decision regarding the pursuit of law as a career
- Guidance in selecting a law school to attend
- Prepare students for the rigors of law school

Public Interest Legal Advocates of Regent University

- To promote effective pursuit of public interest in legal opportunities.
- To provide opportunities for legal advocates for the underprivileged.
- For more information contact: pilar@regent.edu.

Psychology Club

- To investigate psychological concepts and theories with distinct scholars in various fields of psychology
- To promote student research in the field of psychology and social science

Regent Democrats

- Give students, faculty, and staff who belong to the Democratic and Independent parties in the Regent community an opportunity to actively participate in the political process
- Educate the Regent community on the Democratic Party's agenda.

- Advance the progressive ideals of the gospel by focusing on those who are less fortunate and to the needs of society as a whole.
- Shed a favorable light on the Democratic Party throughout the Regent community.
- Engage in healthy debate with the conservative mindset.
- Organize events that are inclusive of all political groups
- For more information please contact brancar@regent.edu

Regent Journal of International Law

- The first Christian academic journal dedicated to scholarly publications on issues of international law
- The mission is to publish incisive analyses of international legal issues by some of the most important scholars and practitioners in the field
- 2 editions per academic year are published
- RJIL actively solicits manuscripts, both secular and religious, which focus on international law

Regent Journal of Law and Public Policy

- Exists to provide a premier forum for articulating the vital intersection of law and public policy, while integrating Christian perspectives, developing professional relationships, and incorporating intellectual scholarship to better understand the American legal and policy landscape
- One of the first Christian academic journals dedicated to scholarly publications on issues of law and public policy
- Features articles, notes, case comments, and reviews submitted by prominent public officials, scholars, practitioners, and students
- RJLPP actively solicits manuscript, both secular and religious, which focus on law and public policy

Regent Students for Life

- RSFL is a pro-life organization, which serves to UNITE pro-life students. EDUCATE students about pro-life issues and put the pro-life message into positive ACTION.
- All aspects of life are included: partial-birth abortion, post-abortion, adoption, euthanasia, stem cell research, genocide, RU486, abstinence, and much more
- RSFL works to develop leadership skills in students training them to be the future leaders of the pro-life movement.
- For more information visit the web site.

Regent Undergraduate Council

- Promote Christian values and ethical standards.
- Promote Christian and spiritual development.
- Foster growth within the student body to improve the quality of education.
- Provide a vehicle for raising student concerns to the university administration.
- For more information contact: ruc@regent.edu, or visit the web site.

Regent University Law Review

- The premier student publication of the Regent University Law School
- Seeks to present academically excellent scholarship on relevant issues facing the legal community today from the perspective of a historic Christian worldview
- Student editors and staff members are selected anonymously on the basis of academic achievement and writing ability
- Students editors and staff members gain valuable experience by writing and editing the Law Review under faculty guidance

Religion Club

- The Religion Club offers a forum to study the "Religious world" around us through informed biblical and theological reflection on important events of the day.
- For more information, please contact Dr. Bill Lyons

Regent Tolkien Society (permanent charter pending)

- Encourage the study of the life and works of J.R.R. Tolkien
- Delve deep into the lore of Middle Earth through Tolkien related activities
- Analyze the works of Tolkien from a biblical and literary perspective

Republican National Lawyers Association

- Advancing Professionalism
- Advancing open, fair, and honest elections
- Advancing Career Opportunities
- Advancing republican Ideals

Student Alumni Ambassadors

- To foster meaningful relationships among current students, alumni, faculty, and friends of the university.
- Provide opportunities for student and alumni to further pursue professional and intellectual interests.
- Members of SAA have the opportunity to network with notable publics, develop leadership skills, and form relationships across class and school boundaries.
- For more information contact Bonnie Shelton: bonnshe@regent.edu, or visit the web site.

Student Bar Association

- The student government body of Regent law, comprised of 16 elected members
- Provides students with representative leadership to the law school and university
- Provides social and ministry opportunities
- For more information contact: sba@regent.edu, or visit the web site.

Students in Free Enterprise

- Assist students achieve their dreams through free enterprise education.
- Utilize Regent University's resources to serve the local, national, and global communities.
- For more information contact: sife@regent.edu, or visit the web site.

Trial Advocacy Board

- To assist in training law students in the art of trial advocacy and procedural litigation skills, while integrating Christian ideals into the courtroom, with the ultimate goal of molding students into aggressive Christian advocates
- Provides the opportunity to attend and compete in national trial advocacy competitions, hosting periodic seminars and sponsoring an annual intramural trial advocacy competition

Virginia Bar Association Law School Council

- Act in accordance with the mission and goals upheld by the Virginia Bar Association
- Committed to serving the public and the legal profession by promoting the highest standards of integrity, professionalism, and excellence as future legal professionals
- Open to all law students

- Provides students with opportunities to interact with attorneys from the state

Honor Societies

Alpha Omega Lambda Chapter of CHI SIGMA IOTA, (Counseling Academic and Professional Honor Society International, Inc.)

- The purposes of the Society shall be to promote scholarship, research, professionalism, and excellence in counseling.
- To recognize high attainment in the pursuit of academic and clinical excellence in the profession of counseling.
- For more information contact: School of Psychology and Counseling at 757-352-4266.

Chi Alpha Chapter of Lambda Pi Eta (Communication Honor Society)

- Recognize, foster and reward outstanding scholastic achievement in communication studies
- Stimulate interest in the field of communication
- Promote and encourage professional development among undergraduate communication majors
- Provide an opportunity to discuss and exchange ideas in the field of communication
- Establish and maintain closer relationships between faculty and students
- Explore options for graduate education in communication studies
- For more information, please email: lpe@regent.edu.

Chapter of Pi Sigma Alpha, The National Political Science Honor Society

- To stimulate productive scholarship and intelligent interest in the subject of government.
- To seek to promote a better understanding of government among its members.
- To promote worthwhile curricular and extracurricular activities related to government and political science.
- To advance and diffuse knowledge and interest in government and political science.
- To organize and conduct seminars, conferences, research, discussion groups, and publications in the subjects of government and political science.
- For more information, please email Dr. Gerson Moreno-Riaño

Omicron Delta Kappa (Leadership Honor Society)

- Encourage and foster leadership through a variety of programs and service to the campus and community.
- Enhance leadership development through planned activities designed to promote service to the surrounding community
- Help students to apply classroom concepts in the real global world, engage in team-based service learning and develop skills in communication, problem solving and leadership while engaging in various forms of civic participation
- For more information, please contact Dr. Sandra Bryant