COMMUNITY LIFE FORM

In an effort to help you understand more about Regent University community life, please review the articles on this page and sign below.

Philosophy of Education

Regent University is a Christ-centered institution. The board of trustees, as well as the faculty and staff of the university, are committed to an evangelical interpretation and application of the Christian faith. The campus community is closely identified with the present day renewal movement, which emphasizes the gifts, fruits and ministries of the Holy Spirit. It is expected that our students will both understand and be committed to receiving an education in accordance with the following articles:

- A. That the Holy Bible is the inspired, infallible and authoritative source of Christian doctrine and precept.*
- B. That there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit*
- C. That man was created in the image of God but as a result of sin is lost and powerless to save himself.*
- D. That the only hope for man is to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, the virgin born Son of God, Who died to take upon Himself the punishment for the sin of mankind, and Who rose from the dead so that by receiving Him as Savior and Lord, man is redeemed by His blood.*
- E. That Jesus Christ will personally return to earth in power and glory.*
- F. That the Holy Spirit indwells those who receive Christ, for the purpose of enabling them to live righteous and holy lives.*
- G. That the Church is the Body of Christ and is comprised of all those who, through belief in Christ, have been spiritually regenerated by the indwelling Holy Spirit. The mission of the Church is worldwide evangelization and the nurturing and discipling of Christians.*

Nondiscriminatory Policy

Regent University's policies governing the admission of students relate to its mission statement, but are not applied to preclude a diverse student body in terms of disability, race, color, gender, religion or national or ethnic origin.

Standard of Personal Conduct

Biblical precepts constitute the guidelines for conduct by all members of the Regent University community. In matters of dress, students should recognize that they are preparing for career placement and thus should present themselves in a manner consistent with professional standards. While casual dress is normally acceptable on campus, the wearing of recreational and beach attire is not in keeping with professional standards and is thus discouraged. Regent University students are expected to abide by biblical standards of holiness. Students are not to gamble, steal or cheat. Students are expected to abstain from sexual impurity, including the viewing and/or reading of pornographic literature and from other immoral activities. Regent University, in keeping with St. Paul's admonition to refrain from behavior that might be a stumbling block to the weaker brother, encourages students to appropriately set aside their personal freedom and refrain from the use of alcohol and tobacco. The abuse of alcohol is prohibited. Firearms, illegal narcotics, alcohol and tobacco are not permitted on university premises. I certify that I have read the Regent University Community Life Form and understand that I will receive an education in accordance with the Philosophy of Education.

I certify that the information given in this application for admissions is complete and correct. I understand that the penalties for providing false information may include suspension and/or expulsion.

I further certify that I will submit myself to the Standard of Personal Conduct throughout the time of my enrollment as a student.
