Welcome to Redemptive cinema, which for me is one of the most worthwhile courses taught at Regent University. Film and video are very powerful ways for telling the world about our faith and our passionate concerns, but using these mediums is never easy, and we can learn so much from other filmmakers.

SHORT BIO
Andrew Quicke took BA Hons and an MA in Modern History and Political Science at Oxford University where sadly there is still no academic study of the film medium. But his training in historical method has been very useful, and he has published five books and various books, the latest being Celluloid Sermons; the History of the Christian Film Industry 1930 to 1986, published by New York University Press. After Oxford he trained with BBC Television and travelled the world for their Current Affairs program Panorama, similar to ABC’s Sixty Minutes. He worked for major groups like Reuters Visnews, was Vice President for Cable Programming for Clearview International and ended up as CBN Bureau Chief in Beirut and Jerusalem, before joining Regent University in 1986.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
Enter description as it appears in the Catalog, including pre-requisites (window will expand as you type).

Theme Scripture:
James 1v22: We are Doers of the Word

INTEGRATION OF FAITH
This course will cultivate habits of thought and expression, both written and oral, in-class and online, regarding movies and their impact upon our Christian faith and worship. The course will help students to formulate strategies of infiltration, influence and redemption within the film community with people of Christian faith.

SECTION 2 – COURSE EXPECTATIONS

COURSE OUTCOMES
Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:
1. Discuss the nature, history and scope of religious films and explain the functions they perform for diverse audiences and consumers.
2. Recognize, analyze and discuss religious symbols, images, myths, themes, and codes as they appear and function in film.
3. Distinguish various perspectives on religion in film and discuss the dialectics of Christian faith in cinematic culture.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of cultural variables (class, gender and race) as they play in recreating religious faith in their own images.
5. Think critically about the relationship of personal faith to cinema, and articulate a Christian posture and vision about the phenomenon of film.

REQUIRED MATERIALS
Students are responsible for acquiring the following books and materials for this course before the first class meeting:

Note: The School has partnered with the Regent Bookstore to have textbooks available for purchase for all students, including distance students. Items may be ordered using the secured online catalog found at www.regentbookstore.net.

- Daily access to the Internet and email
- Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.) version 2007 or later.
- The latest version of a web browser compatible with Blackboard and media players. For assistance, visit the links provided in the Helpful Resources section of the course in Blackboard or contact IT Helpdesk via their website, phone at 757-352-4076, or email helpdesk@regent.edu.
- Additional materials (e.g., PowerPoint files, quizzes, media, and the like) may be provided via Blackboard. Students are responsible for the information and materials distributed in class and on Blackboard (see “Use of Blackboard” below for more information).
- Understand and adhere to the Regent Honor Code found in the Student Handbook. A persistent link can also be found in Blackboard’s “RU Resources” tab.

Recommended Course Materials:

Fraser, Peter: Images of the Passion: the Sacramental Mode in Film: Westport CT: Praeger, 1998

Selected Videos and DVDs: Regent University Library. (24 hour loan)

- Other resources such as writing style guides, Blackboard tutorials, University policies, IT Helpdesk, and information may be accessed via the “RU” and “Helpful Resources” tabs in Blackboard as well as in the Helpful Resources section of this course.

USE OF BLACKBOARD

Blackboard will be used to aid communication and delivery of extemporaneous and other content as the semester progresses. We may also utilize the Discussion Board to extend our in-class discussions. Participation in Blackboard does not supplant course requirements for attendance or class participation. Therefore, while access to and use of Blackboard is required for this course, it should not be seen as a surrogate for class attendance or other course requirements. Also, please keep the following in mind:

- All discussion posts should be scholarly in nature and respectful of colleagues.

- Students are expected to check the Announcements section of Blackboard each week beginning one week before the start of the course.

- Students must keep their e-mail address current in Genisys in order to receive communications from Blackboard and the instructor. Students are expected to check their Regent e-mail daily to ensure timely receipt of messages from the professor.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Attendance is required in order to complete this course. Students failing to attend a minimum number of campus class meetings will automatically fail the course unless arrangement is made with the professor to take an “Incomplete” grade in order to complete the course at a later date in accordance with University policy (see student handbook for more information about withdrawing from a course or the University or for incomplete grades). To prevent automatic failure of a course, the minimum class attendance is as follows:

- For a 16 week course: Must attend at least 9 weeks of campus class meetings.
- For a 10 week course: Must attend at least 6 weeks of campus class meetings.
- For a 5 day Modular (Intensive) course: Must attend all 5 days of campus class meetings.

Note: International students should consult the Office of International Student Services for how immigration status may be impacted if you fail to meet attendance requirements for this course. All students should consult the Financial Aid office for information on how their funding may be impacted as well. International students should consult the Office of International Student Services before registering for a Distance or Modular course.
In addition, the following attendance requirement applies to this course:
No further requirements

In the event of an emergency, it may be necessary for Regent University to suspend normal operations. During this time, Regent University may opt to continue delivery of traditional classroom instruction using the Blackboard Course Management System. It is the responsibility of the student to monitor the course Blackboard site in the event of campus closure.

SUBMISSION OF ASSIGNMENTS
Unless otherwise instructed, all assignments for this course must be submitted via the “Assignment Link” found in Blackboard. All files should be submitted using the following naming convention:

YourName_AssignmentName (e.g. John Smith_Essay 1)

- Papers should be in MS Word format (.docx) compliant with the MLA writing style guide.
- Scripts should be in Final Draft software format.

Enter more specific information for style and format for papers/scripts here (window will expand as you type)

Unless otherwise stated in Blackboard, no assignment will be accepted if submitted via any method other than Blackboard. Assignments are due no later than 11:59 pm on Sunday. It is recommended that students give themselves a buffer of time before the deadline to allow for troubleshooting should your upload attempt fail. Students should look at the assignment submission page to verify that the submission was successful.

Late Assignments
You lose one grading point per day your paper is late; papers more than one week late will not be graded

NOTE: Technical difficulties when submitting to Blackboard will not be accepted unless documented by the IT Help Desk. The IT Help Desk is your first point of contact for problems with Blackboard. Deadline extensions will be allowed only when a system issue occurring on Blackboard’s side is documented by Regent University IT department.

METHOD OF EVALUATION
The final grade for the course will reflect mastery of course content and quality of thought as expressed in:

The first written assignment or Powerpoint Presentation 200 points
The final written assignment or PowerPoint Presentation 300 points
The 3 online critiques at 80 marks each and 3 critique discussions at 20 points each; total 300 points
Final film recognition exam 100 points
Bonus for outstanding work 100 points

SECTION 4 – PROGRAM GOALS

SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATION AND THE ARTS MISSION STATEMENT
To prepare emerging and established Christian leaders to inspire, enrich and transform the media, the arts, and the academy through excellence and innovation in scholarship and practice.

PROGRAM GOALS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF CINEMA-TELEVISION.

MFA in Cinema-Television:
1. Christian Worldview Students will demonstrate the ability to integrate & apply the Christian faith & biblical principles to the study & practices of mediated communication.

2. Professional Artistry Students will articulate their personal artistic “voice” and mastery of the production process as evidenced by excellence in their creative works.

3. Techniques (within majors):
   o Producing: Students will demonstrate mastery of cinema and television producing, which includes the development of leadership and stewardship skills within a spiritual, social, cultural, and global framework.
   o Directing: Students will demonstrate mastery of cinema and television directing, in storytelling, pre-visualization, production design, casting & performance, cinematography, audio, post-production, and the application of Christian leadership skills to the directing process.

MA in Communication:
1. Christian World-View Students will demonstrate the ability to integrate & apply the Christian faith & biblical principles to the study & practices of mediated communication.
2. Academics Students will demonstrate knowledge of relevant communication theories related to the study of film & television.

3. Artistic Practice (within concentrations) Students will demonstrate proficiency and excellence in the rigorous exploration and application within their chosen artistic concentration:
   - Producing: In the logistics of a film/TV production, including story and production development, pre-production, scheduling & budgeting, legal issues & business development, post-production, distribution, and the application of Christian leadership to the producing process.
   - Directing: In storytelling, pre-visualization, production design, casting & performance, cinematography, audio, post-production, and the application of Christian leadership skills to the directing process.
   - Editing: In post-production – including non-linear, story structure, workflow, acquisition, sound design, compositing, media formats & technology, graphics, mastering, production process, and the application of Christian leadership in the post-production process.
   - Critical Studies: In the historical-critical analysis of film and television. This will include mastery of classical, contemporary, and international research methods, critical writing, understanding and application of relevant theory and histories (national and international) – all combined with an understanding of the Christian world-view.

SECTION 5 – UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Students should become familiar with all university policies as outlined in the Student Handbook including:

- Disability services (Note: Requests for accommodation must first be submitted through Disability Services).
- Regent Honor Code (as an academic and Christian community, Regent University takes seriously the call for integrity and penalizes breaches of academic integrity.)
- Withdrawing from a course or the University
- Discipline policies

A link to the Student Handbook can also be found in Blackboard’s “RU Resources” tab along with links to University Library, Student Services, University Bookstore, academic writing assistance resources, and more.

Blackboard’s “Help” tab provides additional resources including:

- Blackboard tutorials
- IT Help Desk contact information

STUDENT COURSE EVALUATION
Students have the opportunity to provide feedback throughout the course through e-mail, telephone, and on-campus appointments. Near the end of the course, students will complete an anonymous online course evaluation form. Since the results contribute to improving course design and presentation, it is important that students be honest and constructive in their evaluations. Students will receive an e-mail reminder from the University when it is time to complete these evaluations. Please take time to provide this input. Students can access the online evaluation system at:

http://eval.regent.edu/regent/survey/students.cfm

If you have questions about the online evaluation please contact evaluation@regent.edu.
