FRIDAY, March 18, 2016

1:00  WELCOME
Robertson Hall Moot Courtroom
Corné Bekker, Dean, Regent University School of Divinity

INTRODUCTION
Mark Cartledge, Director, Regent University Center for Renewal Studies

1:05  PLENARY SESSION #1

Dr. Darrel Falk, Professor Emeritus of Biology, Point Loma Nazarene University
Science, Education, and the Christian Faith

2:15  BREAK
Robertson Hall Lobby

2:30  PARALLEL PAPER SESSION #1

GOD’S CREATION: THE ENVIRONMENT

Lytton Musselman, Old Dominion University – Introduction

John Adam, Old Dominion University
Teaching Mathematical Science from Nature’s ‘Book’ in a Secular Environment

Camellia Okpodu, Norfolk State University
Fiat Lux (“Let There Be Light”) and Photosynthesis

PASTORAL CARE AND SCIENCE

Lizette Acosta, Asbury Theological Seminary – Introduction

Jody Fleming, Regent University, School of Divinity
The Harmony of the Hospice Model: Integrating Theology and the Holy Spirit with Science in Medical Care
Mark Yarhouse, Shane Ferrell, and Julia Sadusky, Regent University, School of Psychology and Counseling
Navigating the Influence of the Holy Spirit for Those with Sexual Identity Concerns

THEOLOGY AND SCIENCE

Meza Hsu, Christian Broadcasting Network – Introduction

Aaron Yom, Regent University, School of Divinity
Correlating Scientific Realism and Theological Realism by Way of Metascience

Jong Seock Shin, Fuller Theological Seminary
The Spirit, the Creator, and Redeemer in the Face of Cosmic Evil: A Methodological Comparison

CHRISTIAN FAITH AND SCIENCE

Rakel Alegre, Regent University – Introduction

Daniel F. A. Hitchcock, Regent University, College of Arts and Sciences
Interpretive Frameworks: Schemata, Paradigms, and Worldviews – The Way(s) We Understand God’s Objective World

John C. Munday, Jr., Regent University
Elements of the Scientific Method in Scripture

3:45 BREAK

4:00 PARALLEL PAPER SESSION #2

SCIENCE AND MENTAL HEALTH

Kevin Spawn, Regent University, School of Divinity – Introduction

Peter J. Bellini, United Theological Seminary
The Church and an Integrative Approach on Mental Health

Stephen Parker, Regent University, School of Psychology and Counseling
Should Christians Who See a Psychologist Have their Head Examined?: Exploring the Relationship between Therapy and Spiritual Formation
SCIENCE AND HEALING

Kim Alexander, Regent University, School of Divinity – Introduction

Marty Dignard, Regent University, School of Divinity
The Scientific Method in the Healing Paradigm of Agnes Sanford

Brandon Babcock, North Coast Bible Institute
The Holy Spirit, Divine Healing, and Exercise Science

SCIENCE AND ETHICS

Meza Hsu, Christian Broadcasting Network – Introduction

Enoch Charles, Regent University, School of Divinity
Plugging in the “Moral Gap”: Divine Assistance, the Holy Spirit, and Naturalistic Ethics

Joel David Daniels, Georgetown University
Science and Soteriology: The Neuroscience of Decision-Making

SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY

Mark Cartledge, Regent University, School of Divinity – Introduction

Doug Olena, Global University
Science as an Ethos: Content and Method of Science as Subsidiary to Character

Aaron Ross, Southeastern University, University of Birmingham
Pentecostals, Tillich, and Faith: A Tridactic Definition of Faith and Its Correlation to Science

5:15 PLENARY SESSION #2 – PANEL

Robertson Hall Moot Courtroom

Diane J. Chandler, Regent University School of Divinity – Introduction
Panel Theme: How Do You Integrate Faith and Science in Your Respective Discipline?

- Jenny Sue Flanagan, Associate Professor and Science Educator, Regent University, School of Education
- Lisa McCoy, Physician of Public Health & Preventive Medicine, Norfolk, Virginia
- Lytton Musselman, Professor of Botany, Old Dominion University
- Robert S. Stewart, Jr., Professor & Department Chair, Science, Technology, and Mathematics, Regent University, College of Arts and Sciences
6:00  DINNER
Robertson Hall Lobby

7:00  PLENARY SESSION #3
Robertson Hall Moot Courtroom

Diane J. Chandler, Regent University, School of Divinity – Introduction

Dr. Harold G. Koenig, Director, Center for Spiritual, Theology, and Health; Professor of Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences; and Associate Professor of Medicine at Duke University
The Role of Faith and the Holy Spirit in Health and Illness: Research and Clinical Applications

SATURDAY, MARCH 19, 2016

7:45  FULL BREAKFAST
Robertson Hall Lobby
Included with full registration

8:30  PLENARY SESSION #4
Robertson Hall Moot Courtroom

Kim Alexander, Regent University, School of Divinity – Introduction

Dr. Jennifer Wiseman, Senior Astrophysicist, NASA Goddard Space Flight Center; Director, American Association for the Advancement of Science’s Dialogue on Science, Ethics, and Religion
Our Magnificent Universe

9:45  BREAK

10:00  PARALLEL PAPER SESSION #3

SCIENCE, ENGINEERING, & TECHNOLOGY

Patricia Lutz, Regent University, College of Arts and Sciences – Introduction

Don Warrington, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga
Taking the Last Voyage with Newton and Pascal: The Life of Saint-Venant

Mark Jumper, Regent University, School of Divinity
Techne, Pneuma, and Paideia: From Foucault to Faith to Form
PENTECOSTALISM & THE ENVIRONMENT

Diane J. Chandler, Regent University, School of Divinity – Introduction

Daniel Rakes, Regent University, School of Divinity,
1st Place Master’s Student Essay Contest Winner
Pentecostalism and the Environmental Crisis: Is a Theological Climate Change Necessary?

Andrew Williams, Regent University, School of Divinity,
2nd Place Master’s Student Essay Contest Winner
Cosmic Fire: Pentecostal Ecotheology in Conversation with Clark Pinnock’s Pneumatology

THE HOLY SPIRIT, SCIENCE, & HEALTH

Jenny Sue Flannagan, Regent University, School of Education – Introduction

Lisa McCoy, Physician of Public Health & Preventive Medicine, Norfolk, Virginia
Not Wired for Worry: Maximizing Physical Health and Wellness

Gregory Howell, Regent University, School of Divinity
Visions of Health and Healing: Early Charismatic Reform Visions of Ellen G. White and the Seventh-day Adventist Waltz with Faith and Science

11:15 BRUNCH
Robertson Hall Lobby

12:15 PLENARY SESSION #5
Robertson Hall Moot Courtroom

Kevin Spawn, Regent University, School of Divinity – Introduction

Dr. Henry F. Schaefer, Graham Perdue Professor of Chemistry;
Director, Center for Computational Chemistry, University of Georgia.
Creation, Cosmology, and God

1:30 CONCLUDING REMARKS

Mark Cartledge, Regent University, School of Divinity