Regent University grants reasonably priced* graduate level credit for Principle Approach® courses taught by Principle Approach Master Teachers. Additionally, to complement these Principle Approach courses, Regent's School of Education offers graduate level courses from their Christian School M.Ed. program at the same reduced rate.

All of these Professional Development courses are pre-approved by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) for teacher/administrator certification.

Principle Approach Courses

Foundations
- Foundations of the Principle Approach
- Foundations of the Principle Approach Practicum

Applications
- Literature/English
- Reading/Bible
- Mathematics
- History/Geography

R.U. Courses Taught by Principle Approach Advocates
- Effective Teaching Practices
- Curriculum Unit Development
- Hermeneutics for Education
- Christian Heritage
- Biblical Integration/Apologetics

Other R.U. Professional Development Courses
- Philosophy of Christian Education
- Christian Character Formation
- Foundations of Teaching & Learning
- Foundations of Biblically-Based Education
- and more...

* These courses are available at a special Professional Development rate of only $165 per credit hour (for a maximum of 9 credit hours). Nine credit hours of these Professional Development courses are transferable into the ACSI approved online Christian School M.Ed. program!

Contact Becky McCown at the Regent University Center for Career Advancement & Training at rmccown@regent.edu or call 757.226.4096 or 888.713.1595.

® The Principle Approach is a trademarked method of teaching that builds Christian character and academic excellence in the students. For more information, please visit the website for the Foundation for American Christian Education, www.face.net.