1. Robertson Hall

Dedicated in the fall of 1994, this four-story building is equipped with audio/video technology and cameras for simultaneous broadcasting. The classrooms are tiered and seminar-sized. The 132,000-square-foot building houses the School of Law, the Robertson School of Government, Office of Institutional Analytics, Campus Ministries, and offices for the College of Arts & Sciences (CAS), plus a 376-seat moot court/city council chamber, various student organizations and the offices of the American Center for Law and Justice (ACLJ).

2. Regent University Library Building

Dedicated in October 1984, the University Library allows students to access libraries and databases nationwide via innovative computer technology in the electronic reference center. The third floor of the library building houses the Law Library (established in 1986), the largest, most complete law library in Hampton Roads, with an extensive collection of federal and state materials. The library building also houses the Center for Teaching & Learning, Academic Support Center, Mail Services, and Copy Services.

3. Regent University Administration Building

Built in 1979, the Administration Building is the original building on campus. The building houses the offices of the CEO, Executive VP of Academic Affairs, Chief Financial Officer, Administrative Services, Facilities & Engineering, Alumni Relations & Special Events, Human Resources, Marketing & Public Relations, and the Business Office. It also houses the School of Education and several classrooms.

4. Regent University Classroom Building

This 50,000-square-foot building, constructed in 1986, houses the School of Psychology & Counseling, the Psychological Services Center, offices of the School of Business & Leadership, some CAS faculty offices, the Applied Science and Ethics Laboratory, and a PC teaching lab, in addition to numerous classrooms and seminar rooms.

5. Student Center

Opened in late fall 2002, the two-story Student Center houses the offices of Student Services, Registrar, Counseling & Disability Services, Career Services, Department of Athletics, and Center for Student Happiness. The Regent University Gift Shop, student leadership offices, student lounge, coffee shop (Cafe Moka) and dining facility (the Ordinary) are also here.

6-7. Chapel & Divinity Building

Opened in March 2013, the Chapel & Divinity Building are the centerpiece of campus life, providing a unifying venue where people can experience the presence of God. The 22,164 sq. ft. Chapel features a 1,000-seat sanctuary for services, convocations, commencements, weddings and baptisms, as well as for individual reflection and prayer. A smaller prayer room is open around the clock for prayer, Bible studies and devotions. Connected to the Chapel by a covered walkway, the 36,645 sq. ft. Divinity Building houses the Welcome Center, equipped to provide prospective students with admissions guidance, facilitate campus tours, and answer visitor inquiries. Military Resource Center, Advising, Financial Aid, classrooms, meeting spaces, and offices for the School of Divinity are also here.

8. Communication & Performing Arts Center

Opened in the fall of 2002, the 135,000-square-foot building houses all the functional areas of the School of Communication & the Arts, CAS faculty offices, along with Media Services and Information Technology. Key elements in the building are a 710-seat proscenium arch theatre, a 195-seat experimental theatre, a TV studio, a film sound stage, nonlinear video editing suites, costume and scene shops, acting and dance labs, two film screening theatres, a complete film production suite, a computer graphics animation studio, a film back lot, and a state-of-the-art cyber range – the only one of its kind to date.

9-10. Regent Commons

This 172,000-square-foot, two-building student housing complex opened in 2007. The Commons is comprised of several types of furnished housing units. Rental fees for these units include furniture, electricity, cable television, Internet service, water/sewage and use of the fitness center.

11. CBN Studio Headquarters Building

One of the most expansive broadcast facilities in the nation, Studio Headquarters houses CBN's worldwide television outreach and network administrative offices. On October 6, 1979, Christian leaders nationwide gathered to dedicate the building for the purpose of taking the gospel to the entire world.

12. CBN Corporate Support Building

The 290,000-square-foot building houses vital support personnel who help meet the demands of CBN's rapidly expanding international ministry, along with Operation Blessing, WorldReach, the Prayer Counseling Center, the Campus Police and a fully operational print shop that services CBN.

13-16. The Founders Inn and Spa

The luxurious, Georgian-style resort provides vacation and business travelers with an unparalleled level of lodging hospitality. The four-building complex provides 240 guest rooms and suites, spa facilities, swimming pools, formal gardens, meeting rooms and two restaurants. The ballroom, which seats 1,400, has advanced technological capabilities. (Special rates are offered to Regent University guests.)

Regent Village

Regent Village is the university's housing area primarily for upperclassmen and graduate students. It is comprised of 224 two- and three-bedroom apartments. Laundry facilities, a grilling area, and basketball and volleyball courts are on the premises.

REGENT UNIVERSITY – Christian Leadership to Change the World Regent University is dedicated to preparing men and women to make a positive impact on society through Christian integrity and professionalism. Thousands of students enroll annually. More than 125 associate, bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees are offered in the areas of business, communication and the arts, divinity, education, government, law, leadership, psychology and counseling, and health sciences (2018).
