On behalf of the Regent University's School of Business and Leadership and the editorial board of the Journal of Biblical Perspectives in Leadership, I thank you for support of the journal.

This issue continues to broaden the horizon of exegetical-based research in organizational leadership in both scope and research methodology. The theme of this issue is "Old Testament Perspectives of Leadership".

Some of the highlights in this issue include articles exploring female leadership in the Old Testament; servant leadership; authentic leadership; spiritual leadership; and, finally, multiple articles on the Fruit of the Spirit in organizational contexts.

We remain grateful for the support and guidance from our esteemed reviewers and the visionary support of Dr. Gomez and Dr. Winston at the School of Business and Leadership at Regent University.

Grace and peace in the name of Jesus Christ.

The Editorial Board

Representing a diverse group of scholars in biblical, social-scientific, historical and leadership studies, the JBPL editorial board aims to provide a much needed multi-disciplinary, as well as international perspective on current research and interest in biblical perspectives in the study of leadership. Each member of the editorial board has been selected because of their published research and focused interest in the exploration of leadership within the Christian Scriptures and its application in the many varied contexts around the world.
