

Name _____

1. Rewrite the poem with attribute blocks.
2. Read your poem to your partner and he/she will use attribute blocks to act out your poem.

Shapes by Shel Silverstein

A _____ was sitting quietly

size

thickness

color

shape

Outside his _____ shack.

size

thickness

color

shape-adjective

When a _____ came down--- kerplunk!—

size

thickness

color

shape

And struck him in the back.

“I must go to the hospital,”

Cried the wounded square,

So a passing rolling _____

size

thickness

color

shape

Picked him up and took him there.

Word Bank

Size

small

large

Thickness

thin

thick

Color

red

yellow

blue

Shape

triangle

circle

hexagon

rectangle

square

Shape-adjective

triangular

circular

hexagonal

rectangular

square