REGENT LAW SCHOOL
Admission Information & Entering Class Profile

REGENT LAW SCHOOL DISTINCTIVES
Integration of Faith and Law
The foremost distinctive of Regent Law is its Judeo-Christian perspective. We couple rigorous scholarship with an emphasis on spiritual integrity, educating a different kind of lawyer uniquely prepared to practice law.

Outstanding Advocacy Skills
Our program excellence is evidenced by a continuing series of national ABA moot court and negotiation wins. Our commitment to developing writing, negotiation, trial, and appellate advocacy skills yields law students who perform with excellence.

Training Servant-Leaders
Virginia Attorney General Bob McDonnell is just one of the many alumni who utilize talents and skills honed at Regent to serve others and make a difference in key legal positions.

ADMISSIONS AND FINANCIAL AID
- www.regent.edu/lawadmissions
- Applications may be submitted October 15-June 1, though applying by February 1 is strongly encouraged. Applicants wishing to be considered for financial aid should submit both the admission application and the financial aid application by February 1.
- The LSAT and LSDAS is required of all applicants. See www.lsac.org for information.
- Over $2.7 million in financial aid awarded annually; approximately 76% of all law students receive aid.
- The National Law Journal ranks Regent Law School 15th in the nation for law schools offering half to full scholarships.

PROGRAM INFORMATION
- www.regent.edu/lawacademic
- Distinguished faculty including former U.S. Attorney General John Ashcroft and ACLJ Chief Counsel Dr. Jay Sekulow.
- ACLJ semester in D.C. program.
- On-campus civil litigation and family mediation clinics.
- International programs in Israel, England, France, Spain, South Korea and China.
- Joint Degrees: J.D./MBA or M.A. in Management; J.D./M.A. in Communication or M.A. Journalism; J.D./M.A. in Counseling; J.D./M.A. in Public Policy; J.D./M.A. or M.Div. in Divinity.

STUDENT LIFE
- www.regent.edu/lawstudentlife
- Consistently ranked in the top ten by the Princeton Review for “Best Quality of Life.”
- Student organizations include the Regent Law Review, Regent Journal of International Law, the Regent Journal of Law & Public Policy (RJLPP), Phi Alpha Delta, and the Federalist Society.

Profile of the 2008 Entering Class
Number of Applications: 688
Class Size: 144
Average LSAT: 153
Average GPA: 3.32
Minority Enrollment: 23%
Female Enrollment: 46%
Average Age: 26
Age Range: 19-59
Va. Residents: 28%

First Time Bar Passage Rate Regent Law Graduates (2005-2007)
LSAT > 150 = 79%
LSAT > 155 = 88%
LSAT > 160 = 91%

DEGREE PROGRAMS
- J.D. (Full- and Part-Time)
- LL.M. in American Legal Studies

Special Events Schedule
www.regent.edu/lawvisitation

Application Request Form
www.regent.edu/lawinfomrequest

Regent University School of Law is fully accredited by the American Bar Association.
STUDENT ACHIEVEMENTS

MOOT COURT AWARDS
For complete list see www.regent.edu/mootcourt

Team Championships
2008 William B. Spong Jr. Invitational Moot Court Tournament
2007 ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition – Regional Champions
2007 Burton D. Wechsler First Amendment Moot Court Competition
2007 J. Braxton Craven Moot Court Competition

Best Brief Awards
2008 William B. Spong Jr. Invitational Moot Court Tournament
2006 ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition, Nationals

Best Oralist Awards
2007 ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition, Washington, D.C., Region
2006 Frederick Douglass Moot Court Competition, Nationals
2006 John J. Gibbons Criminal Procedure Moot Court Competition
2006 John J. Gibbons Criminal Procedure Moot Court Competition – Second Best Oralist
2006 ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition – Sixth & Eighth Best Oralsists, Nationals
2006 ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition – Second, Third & Seventh Best Oralists, Charleston Region

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION & CLIENT COUNSELING AWARDS
For complete list see www.regent.edu/mootcourt

National Awards
2008 International BLSA Negotiation Competition – National Champions

Regional Awards