

Regent University Student Organizations

Updated June 2018

Below is the list of Student Organizations that are currently chartered through the Office of Student Activities & Leadership.

If you see something you are interested in, scroll down for more information. If you do not see something and are interested in starting a new club or organization, please contact Amber Steele, Assistant Director of Student Activities & Leadership at asteele@regent.edu.

- 45 Degrees
- Alpha Phi Omega
- Alternative Dispute Resolution Board
- Asian Pacific American Law Students Association
- Association of Black Psychologists
- BeatHunter on Campus
- Black Law Students Association
- Business Law Society
- Christian Association for Psychological Studies
- Christian Legal Society
- Christians United for Israel
- Club Basketball Team
- College Student Leadership Board
- Commuter Hall
- Cosplayers of Regent
- Council of Graduate Students
- Enactus
- Federalist Society
- Fellowship of Christian Athletes
- First Edition
- Golf Club
- HerCampus at Regent
- Hispanic Law Students Association
- Ice Hockey Club
- INNOLAB
- International City/County Management Association
- International Justice Mission
- Intramural Sports Board
- Journal of Global Justice and Public Policy
- Law Review
- Martial Arts Club
- Master of Arts in Law Student Association
- Military and Veterans Law Society
- Moot Court Board
- Multicultural Initiative in Communication Arts
- Newman Society
- Photography Club
- Psychology Club
- Public Interest Legal Advocates of Regent
- Ratio Christi
- Society for Human Resource Management
- Student Activities Board
- Student Alumni Ambassadors
- Student Animal Legal Defense Fund
- Student Bar Association
- Student Veterans of America
- Students for Life
- Swing Dance Club
- The Studio
- Throne of Grace
- Trial Advocacy Board
- Undergraduate Debate Association
- Virginia Bar Association, Law School Council
- Visual Storytellers
- The Wanderers

Academic Honor Societies

- Alpha Epsilon Delta (Biophysical Sciences)
- Alpha Phi Sigma (Criminal Justice)
- Chi Sigma Iota (Counseling)
- Kappa Delta Pi (Education)
- Lambda Pi Eta (Communications)
- Phi Alpha Delta (Law)
- Pi Alpha Alpha (Public Affairs)
- Pi Sigma Alpha (Political Science)
- Sigma Tau Delta (English)

45 Degrees

- Open to all students
- Create a culture and environment that nurtures and encourages the various aspects of film and healthy relationships with people and God
- Facilitate conversations that provoke thinking concerning Biblical values implemented practically in job positions in film making
- Facilitate peer to peer training on “best practices” discovered in different areas of film making
- Bring in professionals who can advise and mentor members
- Help students build up professional resume materials for internships and applications
- Host peer to peer learning and devotionals geared specifically to addressing questions of the Christian faith expressed in Hollywood
- For more information, contact Harrison Dove-Green at willdov@mail.regent.edu

Alpha Epsilon Delta

- Provide pre-health professional students a community to excel in their academic and professional endeavors
- Provide a resource to leaders in the science department to cultivate excellence for future professions
- Special speakers, field trips to medical/dental schools, Q&A sessions with professors and professionals, practice and study entrance exams
- For more information, contact Lauren Dennis at laurden@mail.regent.edu

Alpha Phi Omega

- Open to all students
- Assemble college students in a National Service Fraternity in the fellowship of principles derived from the Scout Oath and Law of the Boy Scouts of America
- To develop Leadership, to promote Friendship, and to provide Service to humanity
- Further the freedom that is our national educational and intellectual heritage
- Cardinal Principles are Leadership, Friendship, Service
- Prepare campus and community leaders through service
- Provide service to the campus, to the community, to the nation as participating citizens, and to the membership through leadership development
- Leaders in service

- For more information, contact Kendall Trovillion at kendtro@mail.regent.edu

Alpha Phi Sigma

- National Criminal Justice Honor Society
- Promote analytical thinking, rigorous scholarship and lifelong learning
- Keep abreast of the advances in scientific research and elevate the ethical standards of the criminal justice professions
- Sustain in the public mind the benefit and necessity of education and professional training
- For more information, contact Jacob Collier at jacocol@mail.regent.edu

Alternative Dispute Resolution Board

- Open to Law students only
- Develop skills necessary to resolve disputes before trial
- Conduct mock negotiations and client counseling sessions
- Host an intramural negotiation competition each year
- Host the Regional ABA Negotiation Competition every 2-3 years
- Send teams to compete in various ABA competitions
- For more information, contact Joseph Addink at joseadd@mail.regent.edu

Asian Pacific American Law Students Association

- Open to Law School Students Only
- Represent the interests of Asian Pacific American Law Students
- Provide advocacy, support, and career development opportunities
- Encourage leadership and involvement in the Asian Pacific American community
- Provides mentorship and fellowship
- Inspires law students and legal professionals to support the interests of Asian Pacific Americans and all diverse populations
- For more information, contact Ellen Rolda at ellerol@mail.regent.edu

Association of Black Psychologists

- Open to Psychology and Counseling students only
- Part of a national professional organization of psychologists and other social behavioral scientists interested in improving the quality of life of African Americans and other racial minority populations

- Promote and engage in and publicize psychological and other social/behavioral scientific research and social action strategies
- Strives to advance the field of psychology and counseling from a Biblical perspective by analyzing social/political events impacting African Americans and ethnic minority communities
- Works with local churches, mental health, social service, and education institutions to impact the lives of African Americans and ethnic minorities in Virginia
- For more information, contact Uniqua Alexander at uniquale@mail.regent.edu

BeatHunter on Campus

- Open to all students
- Use and teach dance in a way that is honorable to the Lord
- Teach the fundamentals of dance that are necessary for self-expression
- Provide a venue where students can be artistically vulnerable
- Use dance for other positive means such as fitness and building community
- For more information, contact Alston Williams at alstwi1@mail.regent.edu

Black Law Students Association

- Open to Law students only
- Assist membership in developing professional and academic competence through appropriate forums and discussion settings
- Help foster in the membership an awareness of and commitment to the needs of the black community, both legal and otherwise, through community service projects
- Provide opportunities for membership to enhance spiritual growth and development through devotionals and other activities, with special emphasis on our role as minority Christian attorneys
- Increase membership interaction with the Hampton Roads and Regent University communities through jointly sponsored activities
- Raise funds to support the activities of the association and to subsidize membership participation in designated activities
- Dedicated to encouraging and supporting minority law students
- Advocate for the legal needs of the Black community through open forums and membership to individuals from all backgrounds and races in order to approach problems historically and ethically

- For more information, contact Regina Williams at regiwi3@mail.regent.edu

Business Law Society

- Open to Law students only
- Promotes awareness of business and corporate related legal issues within the law school community
- Host informational and educational meetings
- Set up networking events with local law firms and business entities
- To educate students about issues in business law and connect them with potential employers
- For more information, contact Wesley Jones at wesljo1@mail.regent.edu

Chi Sigma Iota

- Open to Counseling Graduate students only
- Purpose of the Society shall be to promote scholarship, research, professionalism, and excellence in counseling
- To recognize high attainment in the pursuit of academic and clinical excellence in the profession of counseling
- Promote excellence in the profession of counseling
- For more information, contact Karen Patty at karepat@mail.regent.edu

Christian Association for Psychological Studies

- Open to SPC students
- A professional student association of Christians who serve as mental health workers
- Promote a better understanding of the relationship between Christianity and the behavioral sciences at both the clinical/counseling and the theoretical/research levels
- Foster fellowship among Christians in psychology and related professions
- Enhance the spiritual, emotional and professional well-being of our members
- Encourage educational and research opportunities that assist the profession and the community at large
- Encourage the pursuit of excellence in the counseling clinic, in the classroom, in the community and in the member's spiritual and emotional life

- Regularly host educational, professional development, and spiritual growth activities for members of the SPC
- For more information, contact Mary Baker at marybak@mail.regent.edu

Christian Legal Society

- Open to Law students only
- To inspire, encourage and equip Christian lawyers and law students, both individually and in community, to proclaim, love, and serve Jesus Christ through the study and practice of law, the provision of legal assistance to the poor and needy, and the defense of religious freedom and the sanctity of human life
- Student ministry which seeks to help law students implement their Christian walk with the practices of law
- Opportunity to attend the annual Christian Legal Society conference
- For more information, contact Anna Colby at annacol@mail.regent.edu

Christians United for Israel

- Open to all students
- National organization of 3.5 million members
- Christians who stand in solidarity with Israel and godly efforts towards peace in the Middle East
- Fostering solidarity with Israel and the Jewish people
- For more information, contact Christian Ellis at chriell@mail.regent.edu

Club Basketball Team (Men)

- Represent Regent University within the commonwealth and the nation at club basketball tournaments
- Play against top competition locally to continue to hone skills
- Use basketball as a platform to minister to each other and to the teams we play against
- For more information, contact Jacob Collier at jacocol@mail.regent.edu

College Student Leadership Board

- Open to undergraduate students only
- Undergraduate student government
- Works with Student Services and various offices and organizations to develop the Regent Community and train future leaders
- Serves the CAS Student Body in creating and supporting a vibrant campus atmosphere

- For more information, contact Emily Lewis at emille1@mail.regent.edu

Commuter Hall

- Foster fellowship among the commuter population to seamlessly incorporate them with the on-campus community
- Support Regent's mission by fostering fellowship among the commuter population that seamlessly incorporates them with the on-campus community
- Provide opportunities for commuting students to come together in fellowship and grow in relationship with God and people
- Work closely with Commuter Life Groups, creating stronger social bonds to complement Life Groups' spiritual bonds
- For more information, contact Canon Waldemar at canowal@mail.regent.edu

Cosplayers of Regent

- Work together to improve cosplays
- Cultivate an environment to build up each other's God given talent
- Create an environment to discuss anime, comics and current media, TV shows and books from a Biblical perspective
- For more information, contact Anastasia Tohill at anastoh@mail.regent.edu

Council of Graduate Students

- Open to qualified graduate students
- Foster and encourage a quality academic and professional environment
- Facilitate the interchange of ideas and programs between the respective schools
- Promote the university's commitment to biblical principles and spiritual development, and in everything to bring glory to God and His Son, Jesus Christ, through the Holy Spirit
- Advocate and represent the collective ideas, interests, and concerns of the student body to the administration and vice versa
- For more information, contact TJ Kragt at tylekra@mail.regent.edu

Enactus

- Using entrepreneurial skills to complete projects for the betterment of society
- Building networks through local and global partnerships to develop imaginative, sustainable designs that prosper people

- Guide others by selfless action
- Enable progress through entrepreneurial action, while partnering to create opportunities and change lives
- Nurture ideas with the utmost consideration for alternative perspectives
- For more information, contact Ashley Lewis at ashllew@mail.regent.edu

- Serve Jesus Christ and utilize our musical gifts to glorify God
- Fostering fellowship, evangelical outreach and entertainment
- Open to all Regent University students
- For more information, contact Julia Lauto at julilau@mail.regent.edu

Federalist Society

- Open to all students
- Hosts meetings and discussions to educate the student body about legal/policy issues in our nation
- Seeks to promote an awareness and an understanding of our nation's founding principles
- Believes in constitutionally limited government
- Views the separation of governmental powers as a central component of the U.S. Constitution; and that it is the province and duty of the judiciary to say what the law is, not what it should be
- For more information, contact Brandan Goodwin at brango1@mail.regent.edu

Golf Club (Men & Women)

- Open to all Regent University students
- Provide students with an opportunity to play golf at a highly competitive level against other universities
- Participate in one on one golf tournaments against other club university golf teams
- Help expand the focus in sports and raise up quality athletes who exemplify the university's core values
- For more information, contact Preston Braswell at presbra@mail.regent.edu

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

- Open to all students
- Train and equip athletes to lead huddles
- Promote camps to coaches and athletes and develop a plan to get them to camps
- Pray and visit sponsors at the high school, coaches, athletes, and leaders on the high school campus
- Provide opportunity for coaches and student-athletes to be involved in retreats/camps
- Huddles led by student-athletes bi-weekly
- Establish a community with both athlete and non-athletes in group activities
- Assist and help sponsors at high schools by mentoring or tutoring the student-athletes
- Plan sport camps for athletes at Regent University to build both athletic skills and relationships with God
- Plan competitive events for the athletes that requires physical activity such as relay races, Olympics, matches, and so on
- For more information, contact Precious Jackson at precjac@mail.regent.edu

HerCampus at Regent

- Provides opportunities for writers, photographers, videographers, and social media managers to contribute to an online magazine
- Create a fun, professional, supportive group of writers who create content that caters to a college-age female online audience
- Writing weekly content that will be published online
- For more information, contact Michaela Bonner at michbo4@mail.regent.edu

Hispanic Law Students Association

- Open to School of Law Students
- Help foster in the membership of an awareness of and commitment to the needs of the Hispanic community, both legal and otherwise, through community services projects
- Promote the academic achievement and retention of Hispanic law students at Regent University School of Law
- Increase membership interaction within the Hampton Roads and Regent University communities through jointly sponsored activities
- Promote diversity by informing classmates about the various cultures within the Hispanic culture while simultaneously welcoming and encouraging non-Hispanic cultures
- For more information, contact Anissa Sustaita at anissus@mail.regent.edu

First Edition

- Glorify Jesus Christ through the performance of a Capella music and spread the joys of music, both on campus and in the community

Ice Hockey Club (Men & Women)

- Open to School of Law Students
- Offer an opportunity for Regent students to participate in local outreach while providing a new club sport for Regent to compete with other schools
- Raise school spirit and school outreach through sports
- Bring the sport of ice hockey to a new demographic
- Give students another opportunity to participate on a team, bring a new sport and a new challenge to the community
- Show school pride and become leaders in the community
- For more information, contact James Keegan Magner at jamema8@mail.regent.edu

INNOLAB

- Open to all students
- Act as a community of networking, business, technology and innovation enthusiasts
- Drive entrepreneurial success through positive connections
- Fostering innovation and collaboration between Regent and local communities by building a system of net-work, innovation talks, cross-discipline creative meet-ups, and connections with local start-up incubators
- Encourage creative, risk-taking, and responsible entrepreneurship to add values to our society
- For more information, contact Brennan Smith at bsmith@regent.edu

International City/County Management Association

- Open to Graduate Students in the Robertson School of Government Only
- Seeks to support, educate, and develop public administration students through social engagement and workshops
- Connects Regent students to a networking and training association with global connections
- Provide industry resources and internship opportunities to current students
- For more information, contact Anthony Riley at anthril@regent.edu

International Justice Mission

- Open to all students
- Campus chapter raising awareness and funds for the abolishment of human rights issues, including modern day slavery

- To raise and establish awareness of human trafficking
- Educate others on how to get involved in global human rights issues
- Unify the community in prayer for those affected
- For more information, contact Rebecca Criscuolo at rebecr1@mail.regent.edu

Intramural Sports Board

- Open to all students
- Provides students opportunities to compete in sporting events throughout the year
- Group of students who plan and execute all intramural sports activities
- Team sports, both seasons and single day tournaments
- Fields IM teams in flag football, soccer, volleyball, Frisbee and many others
- Also organize paintball, 5Ks, other physical activities
- For more information, contact Jacob Collier at jacocol@mail.regent.edu

Journal of Global Justice and Public Policy

- A publication operating under the authority of the Regent University School of Law
- Regent University School of Law's premier academic journal presenting original legal research related to the study of international human rights
- Operates in affiliation with the law school's Center for Global Justice, Human Rights, and the Rule of Law, and receives advice, input and support from the Center
- For more information, contact Ashna Desai at ashndes@mail.regent.edu

Kappa Delta Pi

- For select undergraduate students enrolled in the IDS and Teacher Education majors
- Honor and promote excellence in education through academic achievement, leadership, and fellowship among those dedicated to teaching and service to others
- Inspire teachers to prepare all learners for future challenges
- Give educators the means to implement research-based strategies, continue professional growth, assume leadership and become master teachers
- For more information, contact Leigh Yarbrough at leighyar@mail.regent.edu

Lambda Pi Eta

- Recognize, foster and support outstanding scholastic achievement while stimulating interest in the communication and media arts
- Provide the necessary tools for students to learn to communicate in an effective, professional, God-honoring way believing apart from the discipline of attachment to God in the Person of Jesus Christ all human communication is empty
- For more information, contact Ciara Williams at ciarwil@mail.regent.edu

Law Review

- Premier publication of the Regent University School of Law
- To bring glory to God and to make the character and person of Jesus Christ known through the publication of excellent and principled legal scholarship
- Provides a forum for a variety of authors to publish scholarly articles on the law from a Christian perspective
- For more information, contact William Morgan-Palmer at willmo2@mail.regent.edu

Martial Arts Club

- Will practice martial arts for the sake of self-defense and knowledge
- Open to Regent University students with any amount of knowledge of martial arts
- Offer a safe, accepting environment to enjoy marital arts through form work, discussion and sparring
- In the process, learning how we, as Christians, can defend ourselves and our brothers and sisters, but also knowing when to fight back using appropriate force
- For more information, contact Madeline Salyers at madesal@mail.regent.edu

Master of Arts in Law Association

- Enhance the lives of MA in Law students
- Impact the community through both Christian leadership and advancing the principles of law and justice
- Be an effective medium for the expression of students' views
- Serve as a liaison between students, the administration, and faculty
- Seek to advance the careers and the social and spiritual lives of MA in Law students

- For more information, contact Robin Ireland at robiire@mail.regent.edu

Military and Veterans Law Society

- Promote the interests of the Armed Forces and its veterans
- Equip veterans and others interested in the military to become Christian leaders in the Armed Forces or in support of those who are
- Educate its members on military related careers and provide networking opportunities
- Promote awareness of military related issues and provide legal assistance through a free law clinic working in conjunction with the civil litigation clinic
- Bring veterans together with the local legal industry and the JAG Corps
- Assist in giving pro-bono legal services to veterans and active personnel
- For more information, contact Ashley Hughes at ashlhug@mail.regent.edu

Moot Court Board

- Open to law students only
- Train law students to compete in interscholastic moot court competitions
- Train advocates by honing their written and oral skills through the vehicle of appellate advocacy
- Host and organize moot court competitions to be held on campus, namely the Regent cup, Undergraduate Moot Court Tournament, 1L Moot Court Tournament, and National Constitutional Moot Court Tournament
- For more information, contact Ariel Heinsius Bryant at ariehei@mail.regent.edu

Multicultural Initiative in Communication Arts

- Use discussions, events, and resources to provide a supportive space for minority artists
- Promotes Christian leadership, Biblical worldview and the doctrine of human worth
- Share and collaborate with creative projects
- For more information, contact Jennifer Itzel at jennram@mail.regent.edu

Newman Society

- Open to all students
- Dedicated to foster Catholic-Christian fellowship between Regent students
- Open to all students, faculty, and staff interested in learning more about the Catholic faith

- For more information, contact Stacey Mason at stacmas@mail.regent.edu

Phi Alpha Delta International, Law

- Phi Alpha Delta was founded in 1902 and has grown to become the largest co-ed professional law fraternity in the United States
- Provide social, moral, professional, and fraternal support to students and lawyers
- Purpose of the Washington Chapter at Regent is to form a strong bond uniting students and teachers of the law with members of the Bench and Bar in a fraternal fellowship designed to advance the ideals of liberty and equal justice under law and to encourage their moral, intellectual, and cultural advancement, so that each member may enjoy a lifetime of honorable professional and public service
- For more information, contact Adam Burton at adambu2@mail.regent.edu

Photography Club

- Educate and promote Christian leaders who will change the world
- Share and learn the valuable skills of photography, while building a community of like-minded Christians
- Learn and grow in appreciation and knowledge of photography through learning different techniques and collaboration between members of the community
- Take pictures, teach different photography skills and have fun
- Capturing images of God's works, and sharing the good news through film
- For more information, contact Maya Burton at mayabur@mail.regent.edu

Pi Alpha Alpha

- Global Honor Society for Public Affairs and Administration
- Encourage and recognize outstanding scholarship, moral character, and accomplishment in public affairs and administration
- Promote the advancement of education and practice in the art and science of public affairs and administration
- Foster integrity, professionalism, and creative performance in the conduct of governmental and related public service activities

- Promote servant leadership, Christian character growth and academic achievement
- For more information, contact Andrew Owen at androw1@mail.regent.edu

Pi Sigma Alpha

- Open to undergraduate and graduate students studying government
- Stimulate productive scholarship and intelligent interest in the subject of government
- Seek to promote a better understanding of government among its members
- Promote worthwhile curricular and extracurricular activities related to government and political science
- Advance and diffuse knowledge and interest in government and political science
- Organize and conduct seminars, conferences, research, discussion groups, and publications in the subjects of government and political science
- For more information, contact Graydon Wallace at graywal@mail.regent.edu

Psychology Club

- Open to undergraduate students only
- Investigate psychological concepts and theories with distinct scholars in various fields of psychology
- Promote student research in the field of psychology and social science
- Unify and support psychology majors and minors throughout Regent University
- For more information, contact Chynah Cabrera at chyncab@mail.regent.edu

Public Interest Legal Advocates

- Open to Law students only
- Promote effective pursuit of public interest in legal opportunities
- Provide opportunities for legal advocates for the underprivileged
- Students using their legal education to do public interest work
- For more information, contact Madeline Jones at madejon@mail.regent.edu

Ratio-Christi

- Encouraging and strengthening the faith of Christian students through the use of intellectual investigation and apologetics all while sharing Christ

- Equip university students and faculty to give historical, philosophical, and scientific reasons for following Jesus Christ
- For more information, contact Sharon Mitchell at sharmit@mail.regent.edu

Sigma Tau Delta

- Formed to encourage appreciation of English language and literature through educational and social activities
- For more information, contact Kathryn Funk at kathfun@mail.regent.edu

Society for Human Resource Management

- Promote interaction between students and Human Resource professionals as well as provide professional development and networking opportunities
- Prepare students to become transformational leaders in the Human Resources field
- Professional development, educational resources and learning opportunities will enhance the student's education
- Equipped with current information and real-life experiences from site visits and HR professionals, enhancing the educational experience and preparing students for a professional career
- For more information, contact Kathleen Wilkinson at kathwi7@mail.regent.edu

Student Activities Board

- Helps provide entertainment, activities, cultural and educational experiences to students by planning, promoting and running events
- For more information, contact Trevor Hayes at trevhay@mail.regent.edu

Student Alumni Ambassadors

- Open to qualified students
- To foster meaningful relationships among current students, alumni, faculty and friends of the university
- Provide opportunities for students and alumni to further pursue professional and intellectual opportunities
- Members of SAA have the opportunity to network with notable publics, develop leadership skills, and form relationships across class and school boundaries
- Student ambassador group that advances the mission of Regent through servant leadership, stewardship opportunities, and outreach to the community

- For more information, contact Emily Capra at emilcap@mail.regent.edu

Student Animal Legal Defense Fund

- To act in accordance with God's commission of humans to be stewards of His Earth and Creation, including the living creatures He bestowed upon this earth
- Working for the humane treatment of animals
- To protect animals through raising awareness of animal abuse and neglect, as well as to provide a forum for education, advocacy, and scholarship aimed at protecting the lives and advancing the well-being of animals through the legal system, and raising the profile of the field of animal law
- For more information, contact Mary Roberts at maryro2@mail.regent.edu

Student Bar Association

- Open to law school students only
- Law School Student Government
- For more information, contact Bethany Brock at bethbro@mail.regent.edu

Student Veterans of America

- Provide military veterans and their families with resources, support and advocacy needed to succeed in higher education
- Provide military veterans with the resources, support and advocacy to succeed on campus
- Open to all Regent University officially registered students who are military veterans, spouses, and children, along with faculty and staff who are interested in supporting student veterans
- For more information, contact Tyler Blandin at tylebla@mail.regent.edu

Students for Life

- Open to all students
- Pro-Life advocacy organization and chapter of Students for Life of America
- Taking a stand against abortion and standing up for precious life
- Facilitating opportunities for students and community members to participate in pro-life movement activities
- For more information contact Catalina Ramos at cataram@mail.regent.edu

The Studio

- Building community through the arts, inspiring each other to push the limits of our skills
- Provide group projects and events that encourages team collaboration and foster interpersonal skills
- Foster an environment that encourages creativity and excellence in the skill set a student has, including: animation, game development, web design, graphic design and programming
- For more information contact Timothy Puder at timopud@mail.regent.edu

Swing Dance Club

- Open to all students
- Opportunity for students to learn how to swing dance in a relaxed, non-exclusive Christian environment
- Contribute to Regent University's cultural climate by giving students an opportunity to learn the art of swing dance in a safe way
- For more information contact Jackson Baugus at jackbau@mail.regent.edu

Throne of Grace

- Women's prayer and devotion to be strengthened in spirit, encouraged and to grow closer to God
- Bring the presence, love and power of God to the community though prayer, fellowship, and outreaches
- For more information contact Sheila Atieno at sheiat@mail.regent.edu

Trial Advocacy Board

- Open to Law students only
- Assist in training law students in the art of trial advocacy and procedural litigation skills, while integrating Christian ideals into the courtroom, with the ultimate goal of molding students into aggressive Christian advocates
- Provides training in trial-advocacy and procedural-litigation skills
- Provide the opportunity to attend and compete in national trial advocacy competitions, hosting periodic seminars and sponsoring an annual intramural trial advocacy competition
- For more information, contact Molly Banas at mollban@mail.regent.edu

Undergraduate Debate Association

- Open to undergraduate students only

- Assist students with the integration of their Biblical worldview in the study of the liberal arts and sciences
- Explain the coherence of general and special revelation, reason and faith
- Compete in intercollegiate debate competitions
- Develop essential skills of rhetoric, communication and logic
- Focuses on Moot Court as well as competing at the American Collegiate Moot Court Associate Regional and National Competitions
- For more information, contact Kana Turley at kanatur@mail.regent.edu

Virginia Bar Association

- Open to Law Students only
- Works with the VBS to plan networking and service events
- Act in accordance with the mission and goals upheld by the Virginia Bar Association
- Committed to serving the public and legal profession by promoting the highest standards of integrity, professionalism, and excellence as future legal professionals
- Provides students with opportunities to interact with attorneys from across the commonwealth
- For more information, contact Ashley Hughes at ashlhug@mail.regent.edu

Visual Storytellers

- Cultivating working relationships between artists and storytellers
- Encouraging groups of such individuals to pursue artistic goals
- Promote growth in both individuals and groups
- For more information, contact Jonathan McAlister at jonamca@mail.regent.edu

The Wanderers

- Bring Regent students together at the beach for the purpose of Christian fellowship and outdoor adventures
- Allows students to connect over fun activities that take place both on campus and off
- Including hiking, camping, paddle boarding, surfing, kayaking, snowboarding and other adventurous activities
- For more information, contact Elijah Corujo at elijacor@mail.regent.edu