Growing in Community

Corné J. Bekker
Community and Growth

"Our membership in the church is a corollary of our faith in Christ. We can no more be a Christian and have nothing to do with the church than we can be a person and not be in a family. It is part of the fabric of redemption."

- Eugene Peterson
Community and Growth

“They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.”

- Acts 2:42 (NIV)
Workshop Outline

Why Community?

Nature of Community

Intentional Community

Discipline of Hospitality
Why Community?

Growth

Why?

Worship

Witness
“And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord's glory, are being transformed into His likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.”

- 2 Corinthians 3:18 (NIV)
"The soul that is alone... is like the burning coal that is alone. It will grow colder rather than hotter."
- John of the Cross
“By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”
- John 13:35 (NIV)
“We must live in community because the spirit of joy and love gives us such an urge to reach out to others that we wish to be united with them for all time.”

-Eberhard Arnold
Community: Worship

“I rejoiced with those who said to me, ‘Let us go to the house of the LORD.’”

- Psalm 122:1 (NIV)
Community: Worship

“There are two things we cannot do alone. One is to be married and the other is to be a Christian.”

- Paul Tournier
The Nature of Community

The Church is a Gathered Community where:

- Jesus is Lord. Jesus is the head of this, His body (compare Ephesians 5:22-32 and Revelation 1:10-20).
- The Fullness of God is found (see Ephesians 1:22-23).
- Every member can find their God-given place and destiny (compare Ephesians 4:11-13).
- We can grow, develop and mature (see Ephesians 4:16).
- Where the forgiveness of God flows (compare 1 John 1:6-7).
"The discipline of community makes us persons; that is, people who are sounding through to each other a truth, beauty, and a love which is greater, fuller, and richer than we ourselves can grasp. In true community we are windows constantly offering each other new views on the mystery of God's presence in our lives."

– Henri J. Nouwen
Discipline of Hospitality

Community is where we convert our “hostis” into “hospes”
The Discipline of Hospitality = The Freedom of the Guest
Stepping into Hospitality

Sincerity/Confession

Humility

Submission

Celebration
Hospitality: Sincerity/Confession

“Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.”

- James 5:16 (NIV)
'Some of us tend to do away with things that are slightly damaged. Instead of repairing them we say: ‘Well, I don't have time to fix it, I might as well throw it in the garbage can and buy a new one.’ Often we also treat people this way. We say: ‘Well, he has a problem with drinking; well, she is quite depressed; well, they have mismanaged their business...we'd better not take the risk of working with them.’ When we dismiss people out of hand because of their apparent woundedness, we stunt their lives by ignoring their gifts, which are often buried in their wounds. We all are bruised reeds, whether our bruises are visible or not. The compassionate life is the life in which we believe that strength is hidden in weakness and that true community is a fellowship of the weak.”

- Henri Nouwen
Hospitality: Celebration

“They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. “

- Acts 2:42 (NIV)
Hospitality: Celebration

"God, my efforts to make myself happy have yielded much unhappiness. My anxiety about tomorrow steal the pleasure from today. And my anger towards my neighbor strangles my heart. Please release me from preoccupation with myself and my troubles, and begin filling me with indescribable joy."

- John Michael Talbot
Hospitality: Submission

“Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.”
- Ephesians 5:21 (NIV)
“Where there is God’s love and wisdom, there is no room for fear, or for ignorance. Where there is patience and humility, there is no anger, nor even irritation. Where there is joy in being poor in spirit, there is no secret covetousness toward others, nor greed that leads to hateful actions. Where there is peace, sown in times of meditation, there is no worry, nor dissipation of true spiritual zeal. Where there is awe and deep respect for the Lord to guard the house, the enemy cannot get inside, or gain so much as a foothold. Where there is mercy in discerning the faults of another, there is neither allowance for destructive excesses, nor an un-giving hard-heartedness toward those who fail.”

- Francis of Assisi
Hospitality: Humility

“For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder And every evil practice.”
- James 3:16 (NIV)
Hospitality: Humility

“Pride makes us hate our equals because they are our equals, our inferiors from the fear that they may equal us; our superiors because they are above us.”

- John Vianney
Intentional Community

- See Community as a privilege
- Seek Community
- Practice voluntary vulnerability
- Practice confession
- Tame the Tongue
- Renounce competitiveness
- Cultivate humility
- Seek the good of others
- Submit to others
Henri Nouwen on Community

“Community is like a large mosaic. Each little piece seems so insignificant. One piece is bright red, another cold blue or dull green, another warm purple, another sharp yellow, another shining gold. Some look precious, others ordinary. Some look valuable, others worthless. Some look gaudy, others delicate. As individuals stones, we can do little with them except compare them and judge their beauty and value.”
"When, however, all these little stones are brought together in one big mosaic portraying the face of Christ, who would ever question the importance of any one of them? If one of them, even the least spectacular one, is missing, the face is incomplete. Together in the one mosaic, each little stone is indispensable and makes a unique contribution to the glory of God. That’s community, a fellowship of little people who together make God visible in the world."

Henri Nouwen on Community
The Quest to Create Community

“A person who loves community tends to destroy it. But a person who loves people creates community wherever he goes.”

— Dietrich Bonhoeffer
Community and the Other Disciplines

“One who wants fellowship without solitude plunges into the void of words and feelings, and one who seeks solitude without fellowship perishes in the abyss of vanity, self-infatuation, and despair.

Let him who cannot be alone beware of community. Let him who is not in community beware of being alone.”

- Dietrich Bonhoeffer
Final Words

“Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others. “

- Philippians 2:3-4 (NIV)
Growing in Community

Corné J. Bekker

Center for Student Development
Regent University