The Robertson School of Government is proud to host The Honorable Robert F. “Bob” McDonnell, former Governor of Virginia, as this year’s guest lecturer. Governor McDonnell served as the 71st Governor of Virginia from 2010 through 2014.

He is also a retired U.S. Army officer and a former Attorney General and state legislator. He earned his law degree and a master’s degree in public policy at Regent University where he currently serves as a Distinguished Professor for both the Robertson School of Government and the School of Law.

Governor McDonnell will be speaking on the importance of civility among elected officials in the policy-making process and why American politicians – and their critics – seem so less civil today.

This event honors the legacy of Senator A. Willis Robertson’s more than forty years of service to the Commonwealth of Virginia.
