

North Carolina Community College System Articulation Agreement with Regent University

The North Carolina Community College System and Regent University agree to the following terms for the transfer of students from member colleges of the North Carolina Community College System under the terms and conditions set forth by the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement prepared in response to House Bill 739 and Senate Bill 1161, 1995 Session of the General Assembly, beginning with the academic year 2008-2009 and continuing until such time as this agreement is terminated by Regent University or by the State Board of Community Colleges in writing.

- I. Regent University agrees that students who earn an associate in arts or associate in science degree from a member college of the North Carolina Community College System under the terms and conditions of the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement and who meet Regent University's admission standards are eligible to apply to Regent University's School of Undergraduate Studies and may expect the following if admitted:
  1. A student who has completed the General Education Core as outlined by the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement shall be considered to have fulfilled the lower-division, institution-wide general education requirements of Regent University. To be eligible for inclusion in this policy, the student must have an overall grade point average of 2.0 and an earned grade of C or better on all general education core courses.
  2. An additional 20-21 semester hours of approved college transfer courses required or the completion of the associate in arts or associate in science degree shall be accepted as transfer credits, if successfully completed with an earned grade of C or better.
  3. A student who has successfully completed the associate in arts or associate in science degree with an overall grade point average of 2.0 and an earned grade of C or better on all courses shall receive 64 semester hours of credit and junior status upon admission to Regent University.
- II. Regent University agrees that students who have attended a member college of the North Carolina Community College System without completing the degree requirements for an associate degree but who otherwise meet Regent University's admission standards are eligible to apply to Regent University's School of Undergraduate Studies and may expect the following if admitted:
  1. A student who has completed the General Education Core requirements with the proper distribution of hours as outlined in the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement, but who has not completed an associate degree, shall be considered to have fulfilled the lower-division, institution-wide general education requirements of Regent University. To be eligible for inclusion in this policy, the student must have an overall grade point average of 2.0 and an earned grade of C or better on all general education core courses.
  2. A student who has completed any part of the General Education Core shall receive transfer credit for those general education courses that have been satisfactorily completed with a grade of C or better.
- III. It is understood that this Articulation Agreement does not guarantee admission and that acceptance into any academic program offered by Regent University requires that the prospective student apply and meet the full admission requirements as established by the specific school of interest. In addition, all students shall be required to comply with all rules, regulations, policies and standards of Regent University. The students shall be responsible for all tuition and other charges of Regent University. Enrollment capacity may be limited. Accepted students will be required to contact the specific schools to verify space and an officially starting date. Qualified candidates will need to verify an enrollment starting date, academic qualifications, and the renewal criteria with the particular school of interest. Specific information by school, is available at www.regent.edu/partners.
