

RESIDENT ASSISTANT (RA)
Residence Life

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Resident Assistant (RA) works in Regent Commons or Regent Village under the direct supervision of a Resident Director (RD) and indirectly under the supervision of an Area Director (AD). The role of the RA is to work with other residence hall staff to facilitate an environment within the residence hall community that promotes the educational experience of residential living. The RA articulates to the residents the philosophy and policies of Residence Life and the University and, in turn, represents the needs of the students to the administration. The following are the basic expectations of a RA.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Role Modeling

- The RA is to be a Christian role model to the students under his or her supervision. The RA is expected to conduct his or herself in a manner that is honoring to God and reinforces biblical truth.
- The RA is an employee and representative of Residence Life and Regent University. He/she must be in good social and academic standing with the University.
- The RA is expected to live in accordance with the policies outlined in the Residence Life Handbook, the Student Handbook and the Staff Manual while on and off campus. Failure to do so may result in job action including dismissal.

Individual Helping and Referral

- The RA helps residents with academic, personal and social matters within the limits of his/her training and capabilities, and serves as a resource and referral agent for the residents.
- The RA is expected to know the residents on the floor well enough to recognize changes in behavior patterns for which counseling or other assistance may be necessary.
- The RA is responsible for reading and being familiar with resource material presented in the Staff Manual and the Residence Life Handbook.

Community Development

- The RA will assist residents in developing a meaningful community that supports and promotes the ideals of the Christian faith, personal responsibility and positive citizenship.
- The RA is expected to develop a Community Agreement and facilitate regular floor/community meetings to encourage ongoing community development.
- The RA will work closely with his/her assigned Life Group Leaders to promote spiritual growth amongst students in the community. The RA will regularly attend Life Group meetings to attend support his/her Life Group Leaders.

Program Development

- The RA is expected to be fully committed to and involved in the development of meaningful educational, social, recreational, cultural and outreach programs for residents. This includes assessing residents' needs and planning programs to effectively meet those needs.
- The RA will encourage residents to pursue their interests and plan their own programs and activities.

Duty Responsibility

- The RA assumes on-call duty responsibility as scheduled; at night, on weekends, during break periods when the University remains open (every RA must be on duty for Fall or Spring Break), and during hall openings and closings to insure proper coverage.
- The RA is expected to be in residence each night throughout the year, including examination periods, except during Thanksgiving and Semester Breaks, unless an overnight absence is approved by the Resident Director or Residence Life professional staff.

Administrative Responsibilities

- The RA is expected to be familiar with administrative procedures contained in the Staff Manual, the Residence Life Handbook, the Student Handbook and is expected to assume other related duties as assigned by the Resident Director and Residence Life.
- The RA is expected to help open and close the halls, prepare Room Condition Forms (RCFs), check residents in and out of the buildings and assist with other housing administration functions as assigned.
- The RA will disseminate or collect information and generate reports as required.
- The RA may be asked to participate on committees that will be initiated throughout the year.
- The RA will work one hour (Commons) or five hours (Village) each week in the Office of Residence Life (excludes breaks).

Enforcement of Regulations

- The RA is expected to understand and enforce all University and residence hall regulations and policies.
- The RA is responsible for facilitating a climate that promotes individual responsibility and protects the rights of the individual and the community.
- Regulations and policies should be enforced in a fair and consistent manner. Staff actions should never appear to condone violations of policy.
- The RA is a part of the disciplinary referral system and must maintain appropriate confidentiality.

Safety and Security

- The RA will help safeguard the community by making rounds in the building and conducting Health & Safety Inspections.
- The RA will educate residents on fire safety and evacuation procedures.
- The RA will remain on site during inclement weather situations when relocation or increased supervision of residents is required.

Meetings and Training Programs

- The RA is expected to attend all staff meetings, in-service training programs, and the spring and fall training programs. No exceptions will be granted unless an emergency arises.
- The RA has the responsibility to schedule and facilitate regular meetings with residents.
- Newly hired RAs are required to attend a mandatory Spring Staff Meeting and complete any necessary tasks.

Outside Commitments

- A RA may not hold other employment on or off campus without prior permission from the Resident Director and/or Area Director. Such employment should not exceed ten hours per week or interfere with the RA duties.
- It is expected that the RA will give his/her hall responsibilities priority over all other extracurricular activities. The RA is expected to limit outside activities so that they will not conflict with residence hall responsibilities.
- Students with significant academic or extracurricular commitments should carefully review the situation with their Resident Director or Area Director prior to assuming an RA appointment.

QUALIFICATIONS

- The RA must be a professing Christian and complete/sign the Statement of Faith on the Regent University Employment Application.
- Previous experience living in a residence hall community is required.
- The RA must be a single sophomore, junior, senior or graduate student at the time of his/her appointment.
- The RA must be enrolled for full-time credit hours and maintain at least a 3.0 GPA during his/her tenure.
- The RA cannot have a disciplinary sanction that is equal to or greater than Disciplinary Probation at any time during the period of employment.

COMPENSATION

No-cost studio housing assignment in Regent Commons or no-cost single bedroom apartment in Regent Village (undergrad RAs may have two Life Group Leader roommates in other bedroom & graduate RAs may have a single roommate in other bedroom).
