

Request for Waiver – English Language Proficiency Exam

All students enrolled at Regent University are required to be proficient in the English language. For international students in which English is not the primary language of their country, either the TOEFL, PTE Academic or IELTS exam must be taken to demonstrate one’s effectiveness with the English language. Information regarding minimum required scores can be found on the International Student Admissions web page.

The required English language proficiency exam may be waived if an applicant’s native language is English, he or she has received at least 2 years of education from an institution where English was the language of instruction, or he or she has graduated from an educational institution within the United States.

Please complete the following, using the information from your application for admission. Scan or take a photo of the completed form and email it to apply@regent.edu. Waiver requests submitted without an active application for admission on record or without the required supporting documentation will be disregarded.
